2. There were Churches in England before the Roman Power was here owned : And therefore if it was a fin to change, the first change was the fin, when they subjected themselves to you ; and not the later, in which they returned to their ancient ftare:

3. And for the Germanes or English or whoever did relinquish you, they have as good reason for it, as for the relinquishing of any other fin. If they did by the unhappinels of ill education or delufion, fubmic to the usurped Soveraignty of the Pope they had no reason to continue in such an error. Repentance is not a Vice, when the thing Repented of is a vice. Justifie therefore your usurpation, or else it is in vain to be angry with us for not adhering to the usurper, and the many corruptions that he brought into the Church.

CHAP. XXII.

A Nother deceit that they manage with great confidence, is this; fay they, If the Church Detect. 13. of Rome be the true Church: then yours is not the true Church; and then you are Shifmaticks in separating from it: But the Church of Rome is the true Church; For you will confess it was once a true Church : when Paul wrote the Epiftle to the Romans: and if it ceased to be a true Church, tell us when it ceased, if you can : If it ceased to be a true Church, it was either by herefie, or Schifm or Apostacy : but by none of these : there. fore, &cc.

A man would think that children and women thould fee the palpable fallacy of this Argument; and yet I hear of few that the learned Papifts make more use of. But to lay open the. fhame of it in brief I answer 1. The deceit lieth in the ambiguity of the word [Church.] As to our present purpose, observe that it hach these leveral fignifications. I. It is taken oft in Scriprure for one particular Church, affociated for perfonal commun -on in Gods Worship. And thus there were many Churches in a Countrey, as Indea, Galatia, &c. 2. It is taken by Ecclesiastical writers often for an Affociation of many of these Churches for Communion by their Paffors; fuch as were Diocelan, Provincial,. Nationali National Churches; whereof most were then ruled by Affemblies, where a Bishop, Archbishop, Metropolitan or Patriarck (as they called them) did preside. 3. It is taken oft in Scripture for the Body of Christ, the boly Catholick or Universal Church containing all trave Believers as myssical, or all Profesfors of true faith as visible. 4. It is taken by the P. pills oft for one particular Church which is the Missiria or Ruler of all other Churches.

And now I come to apply thefe in answer to the argument. I. If the Question be of a true particular Church, we grant you that the Church of Rome was a true and noble Church , in the daies of Paul and long after ; and thus Paul owneth it in his Epistle as a true Church. And to the question when it ceased to be a true Church : I answer, 1. What matter is it to us whether it be reasoned or not any more then whether Corinth, Ephefus, Colofs, Theffalonica, or ferufatem be true Churches or ceased ? In charity we regard them all : but otherwife what is it to the faith or falvation of the world, whether Rome or any one of these be yet a true Church, or be ceased? I know not well whether there be any Church at Colofs or Philippi, or fome other places that had then true Churches : And doth it therefore follow that I am not a true believer ? what would you fay to fuch a fellow that fhould argue thus concerning other Churches, as these men do of Rome? and fay, e.g. [If Philipp', be a true Church, then England are no true Churches, If it be not, when did it cease to be a true Church?] Would you not anfwer him, [What is it to me whether Philippi be a true Church or not? May not we and they be both true Churches ? How prove you that? And whether it be ceased or not ceased, doth no whit concern my faith or (alvation, further then as my charity is to be exercifed towards them] So fay we of Rome: It was a true parti. cular Church in the Apostles dayes. And if it be still a true Church what hinders but we may be fo to ? But whether it be fo or not, is little to me. It concerneth not my faith or Salvation to know whether there be any fuch place as Rome on earth, or whether it were confumed long ago. If a man were fo fimple as to believe a report that Rome was destroyed by Charls of Bourbon, and never inhabited, or had a Pope fince, he were but such a Heretick as Pope Zachary and Bilhop Boniface made of Virgi-

2. And if you take the word [Church] in the fecond fence. for a Diocefan or Patriarchiall Church, or Affociation of Churches ; fuppoling fuch forms proved warrantable, the fame answer ferveih as to the firft.

3. But (to come to the true state of our Controversie) If by [a true Church] you mean either of the two last, that is, I. The whole Universal Church : or 2. A Mistris Church that must Rule all the rest, it was never such a true Church in Pauls dayes.

And therefore here we turn this argument of the Papilts against themselves. If the Church of Rome were neither the H hole Catholick Church, nor the Mistris of all other Churches when Paul wrote his Epistle to them, then it is not fo now, nor ought to be so accounted. But the former is proved: 1. That the Church of Rome was not the whole Catholick Church then, no man thats well in his wits can doubt, that reads what a Church there was at Ferufalem, what a Church at Ephefus, and Philadelphia, Snayrna, Thyatira, Laodicea, Cerinth, and abundance more. Prove that all or any of these were parts of the Church of Rome if you can. 2. Where doth Paul once name them either the Catholick Charch, or the Mistris er Ruler of all Churches ? or give the least hint of any fuch thing? or mention any Pope among them whom the whole world was to take to be their Soveraign Head ? Is it not an incredible thing that Paul (and all the Apofiles) would forget to make any mention of this priviledge, or teach them how to use it, or teach other Churches their duty in obeying the Church of Rome, if indeed they had been made the Miftris Church? Men that can believe what they lift, may fay what they lift. But for my part I will never think fo hardly of Paul and all the Apofiles, as to accuse them of fo great oblivion or negligence. And therefore I conclude, Rome was neither the Universal Church, nor the Miltris (burch then (nor many an age after) and therefore it is not fo to be accounted now. So that you fee how eafily this filly Argument fnews its fname.

But (though it concern not our main queffion) I shall tell them further, that the Matter of the Roman Church muft be diffinguished from its New Political Form. For the Matter, fo many of its members as are true Christians, are part of the Catholick Church of Christ, though not the whole: And for the form, I. There is the form of its feverall parts, and the form of the whole. The form of any parts of the Roman Churchi that are Congregations or particular Churches of true Christians, may make those parts true Churches: that is, there may be many a true Parish Church that yet live under the Papall Yoak. But as to the Politicall form of their Roman Cathol ck: Church, as it is a Body Headed by one claiming an Universall Monarchy, fo the form is false and Antichristian, and therefore the Church as Papall, must be denominated from this form; and can be no better.

And this is our true answer to the question, whether the Church of Rome be a true Church? There are I doubt not among them many a thousand true members of the Catholick Church, and there may be true particular Churches among them, having true Pastors and Christian people joyned for Gods worship (though I doubt there is but few of them but do fearfully pollute it : and I am confident that falvation is much more care and difficule with them, then it is with the Reformed Catholicks; yet that many among them are true Christians and faved, I am fully perswaded, especially when I have read such writings as Gersons, Guil. Parifiensis, Ferus, Kempis, &c.) And I think the better of Bellarmine himself for faying of Kempis de imitatione Christi [Ego certe ab adolescentia & user mibi novum apparuit, & nunc etiam mirifice cordi meo sapit. Bellarm. de Scripter. Eccl. pag. 298.]

But the Pope as a pretended Universal Monarch is a faife Head, and confequently their Papall Church, as such, is a faise Antichristian Church, and no true Church of Jelus Christ.

And (by the way) I conceive you are thus to understand a clause in a late oath of Abjuration drawn up by the last Parliament to be offered to the Papists, viz. that [the Church of Rome is not the true Church] that is, 1. Not the modele Catholick. Church, but part of it, as they are Christians. 2. Nor a true Church at all as Papal, and so formally as the Now Komish Church. But all this is little to our main Quession.

Detect. 14. A Nother great Endeavour of the Papifts is, to make men believe that they only have a fix. edness, unity, confistency and setledness in Religion: but we are fill at uncertainty and to scek, incoherent, not tyed together by any certain bond, but still upon divisions, and upon change : And they inftance thus [A while ago you were Episcopal, and then Presbyterian, and now you are nothing, but every one goes his own way : A while ago you wor hipped God in one manner, in Baptifing, Marrying, Burying, Common Prayer, the Lords Supper; and now you have all new. Where is the Church of England now? some of you are for one Gevernment, and some for another : the Lutherans have superintendents, the Calvinists are Presbyterians: And what names of repreach do the Episcopal give the Presbyterians? and the Presbyterians take them to be Anrichristian. Some of you are Arminians; some Calvinists; some Jay Christ dyed for all, and some say no; some are for fastification only by Christs Passive Righteoussness, and some also by his active; with other such differences even in these fundamentall points.]

I repeat their words just as I have heard they make use of them with the people, and now I shall open the deceit of them in particular Answers to each part.

And 1. For the matter of unity, I have spoken of it before, and dare leave it to all the world that are judicious, whether the Papifts or weare more unanimous, or more divided. Only to the Inftances of division, I shall speak further now. 1. For the matter of Church Government, we are all agreed in the fubstance of it (except a very few straglers ;) As concerning the duty of Penitence, Confession, Restitution, Contrition, and of the excommunicating the obstinate, and Absolving the penitent, & c. All this we agree is the duty of the Presbyters; and we agree that these Presbyters may have a President; only some think that the President is ejn/dem ordinis, of the same order, differing but in degree, and hath no power jure divine, but what the Prefbyters have, but only the exercise is reftrained as to the Presbyters, by men; but others think that the President is a Bishop eminently of another order, having not only the exercife, but And is this difference fo the power above the Presbyters. great a business ? And do not these cheaters know, that if for this they would reproach us, they must do fo by themfelves? Know they not that among their own Schoolmen there is the fame difference, or in most points the fame? And know they not that if differences in Ceremonies or Modes should unchurch us, or difgrace us, it would fall as foul on the whole Catholick Church, and that in the very primitive times? Did they never read of the difference between the Afian and the Roman Churches, about the celebration of Easter day, and how Polycrates and the reft did plead Tradition against the Church of Romes Tradition ; and how Irenans did reprehend the Bifhop of Rome for his uncharitable censure of the Churches for so small a difference? And how Polycarp and Anisetus Bishop of Rome could not agree. as building upon contrary Traditions : but yet maintained Christian peace; as Ensebins out of Irenaus his Epistle to Victor tels us, lib. 5. Hift. Eccl. cap. 26. And the English and Irifh Churches long after that adhered to the Afian way ; even after the Councill of Nice had ended the controverfie on the Roman fide. And who knows not how many more controverfies greater then these of ours have been among the Churches of Chrift, without their unchurching or difparagement to Religion.

And for the Doctrinal Controversies mentioned, most of them lie more in words then in sence, and all of them are far from the foundation, though they be about Christ, who is the Foundation. If one of your picture-drawers mistake the complexion of Christ, or if one should fay he was not buried in a sheet, these are errours about Christ that is the foundation, and yet far from the foundation. Those of us that fay Christ dyed for all, and those that say he dyed not for all, do agree as your School-men do, that he dyed for all, as to the set fufficiency of his death and price: but he dyed not for all as to the attmall efficiency of pardon and falvation: Is not this your doctrine ? and is not this ours? and are not you as much disagreed about it as we ? what else meant the late decision against the Jansenist? And yet have you the faces to make this a reproach of us? And for the the righteou [nefs of Chrift, we are commonly agreed that it is both bis Obedience and Paffion that we are justified and faved by : though we are not all of a mind about the reason of their feveral interests; which difference is fo far from unchristening us, that it makes no confiderable odds among our felves, who are cenforious enough in cafes of difference.

And for different forms of worthip, fure these men do wilfully forget what a number of Offices and Mais books have been among themfelves and other Churches? and what a number of Letanics or Liturgies of feveral ages and Churches they have given us in the Bibliotheca Patram : but more of this anon.

2. And as for the changes and unfixedness which they charge us with, we are contented that I. Our principles. 2. And our practifes be compared with the Papifts, and then let even modeft and judicious enemies be judges which of us are more fixed, or more mutable.

I. For our Principles : we take only Chrift to be the chief Foundation of our Faith, and his infp red Prophets and Apoffles to be the secondary foundation : whereas the Papifts build upon many a most ungodly ignorant man, because he is the Pope of Rome. And which of these is the firmer foundation?

2. We take nothing for our Rale but the fure word of God contained in the holy Scriptures: but the Papifts take the Decrees of all Popes and Councils for their Rule : Our Rule they confess to be Divine and infallible : Their Rule we affirm to be humane and fallible. Which then is like to be more firm ? Our Rule (the facred Scriptures in the Originall languages, as to the words, and the matter of them, as to the fence) the Papifts themselves confeis unchangeable ; but whether they will fay as much of their own, I will try by two or three Instances. 1. What an alteration Pope Sixtus, and Pope Clement made in the Vu'gar Latine Bible, which is one part of their Rule, I told you before, and Dr. James his Bellum Papale will tell you the particulars. 2. The other part is their Decrees, of which Pope Leo the tenth in Bulla contr. Luth. in Binnins, page 655. faith [the boly Popes our predecessors never erred in sheir Canons and Constitutions] And yet hear what Pope fulius the fecoud faith in his General Councill at the Late-

rane with their approbation, Cant. pragmat. Sanch. monitor. Binnins, vol. 4. pag. 560. [Though the Institutions of facred Canons, hely Fathers, and Popes of Rome — and their Decrees be judged immutable, as made by Divine Inspiration; yet the Pope of Rome, who, though of unequal merits, holdeth the place of the Eternal King, and the Maker of all things, and all Laws on earth, may abrogate these Decrees when they are abused.]

You fee here from the mouth of Infallibility it felf (if the Roman faith have any) of what continuance we may judge their Immutable Decrees to be of, which are made as by Divine infpiration: they are Immutable till the Pope abrogate them, who being in Gods place, though of unequal merits (O humble confeffion !) is of power to do it.

3. We have a Rule that was perfected by (brift and his Apofiles, to which nothing can be added, and therefore we are at a Certainty for our Religion: for we have a fure and perfect Rule from Heaven. Nothing may be added to it, or taken from it. But the Papifts do profess that the Determinations of the Pope or Councill may make a point (and fo five thousand points, for there is no certain number) to be de fide articles of faith, and neceffary to falvation, though not in fe, yet quoad nos, as to us. (And what it is for a Law to be obligatory in fe, and not quoad nos, is hard to understand.) So that the Papifts never know when their faith is perfect and grown to its full stature. For ought they know a thousand more Articles yet may be added. And yet these men of uncertain growing faith, have the face to perfwade men that we are mutable, and they are fixed. You fee our feveral Principles : now to our Practices.

For our part, 1. We never changed our Head, our Lord, our Faith, or one Article of our Faith : if malice it felf be able to charge us with changing the fmalleft Article of our Faith, let them fay their worft : we change not our Rule, the holy Scriptures, nor one claufe or fentence of it, but endeavour the prefervation of the fame, which at the first we received. In our contest with the Papists, our great offence is at their mutation from the antient Rule and way; we contend but for the faith once delivered to the Saints : the old may with usis the good may : we abhor a Religion that is new forung up, or is lefs then one thousind five hundred and fifty years flanding at least. If we change change in any thing, it is but by repenting of our former changeablenefs while our Nation was Popifh, having then changed from the Apoftolick fimplicity, we change from that finful change, and return to the antient way again. And if we have made any further changes fince our first change at the Reformation, it is but a perfecting the change to Antiquity, and Apostolick fimplicity which we then begun. Rome was not built in a day, and is not pulled down in a day. The work of Reformation is but one change, though it be not done all at one time. If we find some fpots of Romish dire upon us, that escaped us at our first washing, it is no dangerous mutability yet to walh it off. If a man converted by faving grace be not perfectly rid of all his former fin the first day of his Conversion, should he be reproached as mutable for firiving against it all his life after, and caffing it off by degrees as he is able? If a man did but recover by degrees from the relicks of his difease, they will not therefore reproach him as mutab'e? If he fweep the dust or dirt out of his house every day, they will not fay, He is mutable and knows not where to reft. These men might as well reproach us as mutable, because we rife in the morning and do not ftill lie in bed; or because we go to bed. at night, and do not flay up ftill.

But what is it that we are changeable in? we have changed none of the fubftance of worship : did we baptize before, and do we not fo ftill ? Did we pray or administer the Lords Supper before, and do we not fo ftill? what is the change? why, I. We before used the common Prayer book and now we do not. 2. Before we used prayers at the buria' of the dead, which now are omitted. 3. Before we used the Cross and Surplice, and kneeled at the Sacrament, which are now omitted. And what then ? therefore we have changed our Religion. Even as a man changeth his cloaths by brufhing them, or his house by fweeping it, or his face by washing it. Do these men think us so sortish as to place our Religion in these Circumstances ? God hath bid us Bray continually : but. he hath not told us whether we fhall use a Prajer book or not, but left that to mens necessities or conveniences to determine of ... And doth a man change his Religion or Worfhip of God, if he either begin or cease to use a Book ? If any man had so little wir or Religion, as to place their Religion in a Prayer book, its nogreat loss to them if they have lost their Religion, when the Prayen.

Prayer book is taken from them. We doubt not but Prayer books are profitable to fome, and hinderances to others : fome thould use them, and fome thould not : but whether we use them, or not use them, is no part of our Religion at all, but a meer Accident, or common help and appurtenance. God hath not told preachers whether they shall use any Notes for their memory in Preaching : to one it is an binderance ; to another an help. Doth a man change his Religion when he changeth a cuftome of using Notes? God hath not told us what Chapter we shall read, or what Pfalm we shall fing, or what Text we shall Preach on this day or that day. What if one age think it best that fome Paftors give Laws to all the reft, that they shall read no Chapter, preach on no Text, and fing no Pfalm but by their direction: and the next age think it meeter to leave it to each Minister, as thinking it unfit to Ordain fuch Miniflers that have not wit enough to choole their Text, or Chapter, or Pfalm according to occasions. Will you fay that here is a change of Religion? These outfide Hypocrites teil the world what a thing they take Religion to be, and in what they place it, What if one man usean hour-glass in preaching, and another use none? What if one read a Chapter with spectacles, and another without? or if one preach in a Pulpit, and another below : or if one preach in a white garment, or another in a black : or if one ftand at the Sacrament, and another fit, and another kneel: Are we therefore of feveral Rel gions? or is this any part of the worship it felf? Do we not all now either fland, fit, or kneel at the hearing of a Sermon, as we please? Do we not kneel or stand at Prayer as we please? Yea do not men commonly in finging Plalms of Prayer or Praile to God, fit or fland as they please? And what if we do so at the Sacrament ? Is it not all one? Or doth standing, kneeling or fitting make another Religion, or any part of it? And for Marrying, Burying, Baptizing, and the reft, we have altered no pare at all of the worthip of God; but order them in that manner as feemeth most convenient. What ignorant fouls are these, that think that the using a Prayer book, or praying without book, or the using this gesture, or that, these words, or those words that are to the fame fence, doth make different Religions or Ordinances of worthip? These are tricks that none but the fottifhly ignorant will be deluded with, that know not what Religion or worship is. They may as well fay, If I change my Lecture-day from Thursday to Friday, that I change my Religion or the worship of God. These are our great changes.

Well ! will you now hear whether the Papifts or we be the greatest Changlings? 1. Some just changes they have made themfelves, that they know well enough are as great as ours. It was to common in the antient Church to Pray only ganding on every Lords day, and not to kneel at all in any part of the worship of that day, that it was taken for an universal Tradition, and to kneel was taken for a great fin, and condemned by General Councils many hundred years after Chrift ; and yet the Church of Rome, and other Churches as well as we have cast off this pretended Tradition, violated this Decree of General Councils, and forfaken this univerfal Cuftom of the Church. And the Papifts receive the Eucharift kneeling, for all this Law and Custome.

In the primitive Church, and in Tertullians dayes, a Common Feaft of the Church was uled with the Lords Supper, and the Sacrament taken then. But now this Cuftom is also changed. It was then the Cultom to fing ex tempore in the Congregation to Gods praise. But now Rome it felf hath no fuch Cultom. It was once the Cuftom to give Infants the Lords Supper : but now Rome it felf hath cast off that Custom. Once it was a Canon that Bisbops must not read the books of Gentiles, (Concil. Carthag.4.) which yet Paul made use of, and the Papists now do too much value. Abundance fach changes might be mentioned, greater then ours, in which we are justified by the Papists themselves.

2. But they have yet other kind of changes then thefe. They have changed the very Effence of the Catholick Church (in their effeem ;) they have changed the Officers, the Doctrine, the Discipline, the Worship, and what not, as though they had been born for change, to turn all upfide down.

In the Primitive times, the Church had no univer (al Monarch but Christ: but they have fet up a new universal Monarch at Rome.

In the primitive times the Catholick Church was the Univerfality of Christians : and they have changed it to be only the Sabjects of the Pope.

In the Primitive times Rome was but a particular Church, as 74-ferusalem and other Churches were : but they have changed it, to be the Mistris of all Churches.

For many hundred years after Christ, the Scripture was taken to be a sufficient Rule of faith; but they have changed it to be but part of the Rule.

In the antient Church all forts were earnestly exhorted to read, or hear, and study the Scripture in a known tongue : but they have changed this into a desperate restraint, proclaiming it the cause of all Heresies.

In the antient Church the Bread and Wine was the Body and Blood of Christ Representative and Relative : but they have changed it into the real Body and Blood.

Heretofore there was Bread and Wine remaining after the words of Confecration : but they have changed fo, that there remaineth neither Bread nor Wine, but the qualities and quantity, without the fubftance, and this muft be believed, becaufe they fay it, against Scripture and Antiquity, and in defpight offense it felf.

In the antient Church the Lords Supper was administred in both kinds, bread and mine to all: but they have lately changed this into one kind only to the people, denying them one half. of the Sacrament.

Of old the Lords Supper was but the Commemoration of the facrifice of Christ upon the Cross, and a Sacrament of our Communion with him and his members: but now they have changed it into a propitiatory facrifice for the fins of the quick and dead: and in it they adore a piece of Bread as very God, with Divineworship.

Of old, men were taught to make daily confession of fin, and beg pardon, and when they had done all, to confess themselves unprofitable fervants : but now they are fo changed, that they pretend not only to be perfeet without fin, and to Merit by the Condignity of their works with God, but to supererogate and be more perfect then innocency could make them, by doing more then their duty.

Of old those things were accounted fins deserving Hell, and needing the blood of Christ for pardon, which now are changed into venial fins, which properly are no fins, and deserve no more then temporal punishment.

Of old the Saints had no proper merits to plead for themfelves; and now men have fome to spare for the buying of souls out of Purgatory.

Of old the Paltors of the Churches were subject to the Rulers of the Commonwealth; even every foul, not only for wrath, but for Conficience fake was obliged to be subject: but now all the Clergy are exempted from secular Judgement, and yet the secular power is subject to them: for the Pope hath power to depose Princes, and disposses to them of their Dominions, and put others in their rooms, and diffolve the bonds of Oaths and Covenants, in which the subjects were obliged to them, and to allow men to murder them by stabbing, poysoning, &c. If you do not believe me, stay but till I come to it, and I shall give you yet some further proof.

Would you have any more of the Popifh Changes? Why I might fill a volume with them.Should I but recite all the changes they have made in Doctrines, and all that they have made in Church Orders, and Difcipline, and Religious Orders and their Difcipline, and in Worfhip, and Ceremonies, I thould be over tedious : their very Liturgy or Maff-book hath been changed, and made by changes, fuch abundance of additions it hath had fince the beginning of it. What changes Sixtus the fift, and Clement the eighth made in their Bibles, I told you before : as alfo what changes they have had in the election of their Popes.

And now I am content that any impartial man be judge whetherPapifts or the Reformed Churches are the more mutable and unfetled in their Religion ? and which of them is at the greater certainty, firmnefs, and immutability?

CHAP. XXIV.

Detect. 15. A Nother fraud of the Papifls, which they place not the least of their confidence in, is this: They perswade the people that our Church and Religion is but new, of the other dayes invention : and that theirs is the only old Religion. And therefore they call upon us to give them a Catalogue of the professor of our Religion in all ages; which they pretend we cannot do: and ask us where our Church was before Luther ?

Q 2

To

To this we shall give them once more a brief, but fatistacto. ry answer. I. We are fo fully affured that the oldest Religion is the belt, (fince the date of the Gospell) that we are contented that our whole caufe do ftand or fall by this tryall. Let him be efteemed of the true Religion, that is of the oldeft Religion. This is the main difference between us and the Papifts : We are for no Religion that is not as old as the dayes of the Apostles : but they are for the Novelties and Additions of Popes and Councils. Their own Polidore Virgil de Inven. Rerum, p. 410. lib 8. c. 4. calling us a Sect, doth give you a just description of us [Ita licentia pacta loquendi, &c. i.e. Having once got leave to speak, that set did marvailously increase in a short time; which is called Evangelicall, because they affirm that no Law is to be received which belongeth to falvation, but what is given by Chrift or the Apostles.] Mark what they confels themselves of our Religion : And yet these very men have the face to charge us with Novelry; as if Chrift and his Apostles were not of fufficient Antiquity for them. Our main quarrel with them is, for adding new inventions in Religion, and their principal bufinefs against us is to defend it, and yet they call theirs the old Religion, and ours the new.

Our Argument lieth thus. That which is most conform to the Doctrine and Practice of Christ and his Apostles, is the truly Antient Religion and Church. But our Religion and Church is most conform to the doctrine and practice of the Apostles: therefore it is the truly antient Religion and Church. The Major they will yield: For no older Religion is desirable, further then as the Law of Nature and Moral Determinations of God are still in force. I suppose they will not plead for Judaism. For the Minor, we lay our cause uponit, and are ready to produce our evidence for the Conformity of our Religion and Churches to the doctrine and practice of the Apostles.

That Religion which is most conform to the Holy Scriture is most conform to the doctrine and practice of Chrift and his Apostles : But our Religion (and Churches) is most conform to the holy Scriptures : therefore, \mathcal{GC} . They can fay nothing against the Major, but that the Scripture is Insufficient without Tradition : But for that, I. We have no Rule of faith but what is by themsfelves confessed to be true :

true : They acknowledge Scripture to be the true word of God; So that the Truth of our Rule is Justified by themfelves. 2.Let them thew us as good Evidence that their Additional Articles of faith or Laws of life came from the Apoftles, as we do that the Scriptures came from them, and then we shall confess that we come fhort of them : Let them take the Controversies between us point by point, and bring their proof, and we will bring ours, and let that Religion carry it that is Apostolicall : But we are fure that by this means they will be proved Novelifts. For 1. Their Traditions in matter of faith superadded to the Scripture, are meer Hereticall or Erroneous forgeries, and they can give us no proof that ever they were Apostolicall. 2. The Scripture affirmeth its own fufficiency; and therefore excludeth their Traditions. 3. I shewed you how in their own General Council at Bafil, the Scripture lufficiency was defended. 4. I have shewed you in my Book called the Safe Religion. that the ancient Fathers were for the fufficiency of Scripture. 5. Their Traditions are the opinions of a dividing fect, contrary to the Traditions or doctrine of the prefent Catholick Church : the far greater part of Christians being against them. 6. We are able to fnew that the time was for fome hundred years after Chrift, when most of their pretended Traditions were unknown or abhorred by the Christian Church, and no such things: were in being among them. 7. And we can prove that the chief points of Controversie mantained against us, are not only without Scripture, but against it, and from thence we have full particular evidence to disprove them. If the Scriptures be true, as they confess them to be, then no Tradition can be Apoltolicall or true that is contrary to them : For example: the Papifts Tradition is, that the Clergy is exempt from the Magistrates judgement : But the holy Scripture faith [Let every foul be subject to the higher power, Rom. 13. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. The Papilis Tradicion is for ferving God publickly in an unknown tongne . But the holy Scripture is fully against it. Their Tradition is against Lay mens reading the Scripture in a known tongue, without special License from their ordinary : But Scripture and all antiquity is against them. The like we may fay of many other Controversies.

So that these feven wayes we know their Traditions to be deceit. Q3 deceitfull; becaufe they are 1. Uoproved. 2. Against the sufficiency of Scripture. 3. Against their own former confessions. 4. Against the concent of the Fathers. 5. Contrary to the judgement of most of the Catholick Church. 6. We can prove that once the Church was without them. 7. And they are many of them contrary to express Scripture.

And if Scripture will but fhew which of us is neereft the do-Arine and practice of the A possibles, then the controversie is ended, or in a fair way to it : For we provoke them to try the cause by Scripture, and they deny it : we profess it is the Rule and test of our Religion; but they appeal to another Rule and test. And thus you may see which is the old Religion: which will be somewhat fullyer cleared in that which followeth.

II. And that our Church and Religion hath been continued from the dayes of Chrift till now, we prove thus. I. From the promife of Chrift, which cannot be broken. Chrift hath promifed in his word, that that Church and Religion which is most conform to the Scripture, shall continue to the end: But our Church and Religion is most conform to the Scripture : therefore Chrift hath promifed that it shall continue to the end.

2. From the event. The Christian Religion and Catholick Church hath continued from the dayes of Chrift till now. But ours is the Christian Religion, and Catholick Church : therefore ours hath continued from the dayes of Chrift till now. The Major they will grant : the Minor is proved by parts; thus. I. That Religion which hath all the Effentials of Christianity, and doth not deny or destroy any Essential part of it, is the Christian Religion : but such is ours : therefore, Ge. 2. That Religion, which the Apofiles were of, is the Chriftian Religion : But ours is the fame that the Apofiles were of : therefore, &c. 3. That Religion, which is neerer the Scripture then the Romifh Religion, is certainly the Christian Religion : But fo is ours : therefore, Ge. 4. They that believe not only all that in particular that is contained in the Ancient Creeds of the Church , but alfo in generall all that is besides in the holy Scripture, are of the Christian Religion: But thus do the Reformed Churches believe, co.c.

2. And for our Church; 1. They that are of that one boly Catholick Church, whereof Chrift is the head, and all true Christian Christian

My .

Christians are members, are of the true Church : (For there is but one Catholick Church :) But so are we: therefore, σo .

2. They that are San dified, Justified, have the love of God in them, are members of the true Catholick Church: But such are all that are fincere Professor of our Religion: therefore, &c.

But all this will not ferve them without a Catalogue, and telling them where our Church was before Lather: To this we further anfwer; we have no peculiar Catholick Church of our own; for there is but one, and that is our Church: Wherever the Chriftian Church was, there was our Church. And whereever any Chriftians were congregate for Gods worfhip, there were Churches of the fame fort, as our particular Churches. And wherever Chriftianity was, there our Religion was: For we know no Religion but Chriftianity. And would you have us give you a Catalogue of all the Chriftians in the world, fince Chrift? Or would you have us as vain as H, T. in his Manuall, that names you fome Popes, and about twenty profe flors of their faith in each age, as if twenty or thirty men were the Catholick Church: Or as if those men were proved to be Papifts by his naming them? This is eafie, but filly difputing.

In a word, Our Religion is Chriftianity. 1. Chriftianity hath certain Effentials, without which no man can be a Chriftian; and it hath moreover many precious truths, and duties neceffary neceffitate pracepti, and alfo neceffitate medii, to the better being of a Chriftian. Our being as Chriftians is in the former; and our ftrength and increase and better being is much in the latter. From the former, Religion and the Church is denominated. Moreover, 2. Our implicite and actuall explicite Belief (as the Papifts call them) must be diftinguisched; or, our General and our particular Belief. 3. And alfo the Positives of our Belief must be diftinguisched from the implyed Negatives; and the express Articles themselves, from their implyed Confectaries.

And now premifing these three diffinctions, I shall tell you where our Church hath been in all Ages fince the birth of Christ.

1. In the dayes of Chrift and his Apostles our Church was where they and all Christians were : And our Religion was with with them in all its parts, both Effential and perfective. That is, we now Believe I. All to be true that was delivered by the Apofiles as from God, with a General faith, 2. We believe all the Effentials and as much more as we can understand, with a Particular faith. 3. But we cannot fay that with fuch a particular faith we believe all that the Apofiles believed or delivered; for then we must fay that we have the fame degree of understanding as they; and that we understand every word of the Scriptures.

2. In the dayes of the Apostles themselves, the Consectaries, and implied Verities, and Rejections of all Herefies were not particularly and expressly delivered either in Scripture or Tradition (as the Papist's will confess.)

3. In the next ages after the Apossiles, our Church was the one Catholick Church, containing all true Christians, Headed by Jefus Christ: and every such Christian (too many to number) was a member of it. And for our Religion, the Essential parts of it were contained both in the Holy Scriptures, and in the Publick Professions, Ordinances, and Practices of the Church in those ages, (which you call Traditions:) and the rest of it, even all the doctrines of faith and universal Laws of God, which are its perfective parts, they were fully contained in the holy Scriptures. And some of our Rejections and Confectaries, were then gathered and owned by the Church, as Herefies occasioned the expressing of them : and the reft were all implyed in the Apostolical Scripture doctrine which they preferved.

4. By degrees many errors crept into the Church : yet fo, that 1. Neither the Catholick Church, nor one true Christian (in fensa composito at least) did reject any effential part of Christianity. 2. And all parts of the Church were not alike corrupted with error, but some more, and some less. 3. And still the whole Church held the holy Scripture it felf, and so had a perfect General or Implicite belief; even while by evill confequences they oppugned many parts of their own profeffion.

5, When in process of time by claiming the universall Soveraignty, Rome had introduced a new pretended Catholick Church, (fo

(fo far as their opinion took) by fuperadding a New Head and form, there was then a twofold Church in the Weft; the Christian as Chriftian headed by Chrift; and the Papal as Papal Headed by the Pope; yet fo as they called it but one Church; and by this usurped Monarchy as under Christ endeavoured to make but one of them, by making both the Heads Effential, when before one only was tolerable. And if the Matter in any part may be the fame, and the fame Man be a Christian and a Papift, and fo the fame Affemblies : yet ftill the forms are various: and as Christians and part of the Catholick Church, they are one thing : and as Papifts, and members of the separating sect. they are another thing. Till this time there is no doubt of our Churches Vilibility.

6. In this time of the Romifh Usurpation, our Church was visible in three degrees, in three severall forts of persons. I. It was visible in the lowest degree among the Papists themselves, not as Papifts, but as Christ ans. For they never did to this day deny the Scriptures, nor the Ancient Creeds, nor Baptifm, the Lords Supper, nor any of the substance of our Politive Articles of Religion. They added a New Religion and Church of their own, but still professed to hold all the old in confistency with it.

Wherever the truth of boly Scriptures and the ancient Creeds of the Church were professed, there was our Religion before Luther : But even among the Papifts the holy Scriptures and the faid Creeds were (vifibly) profeffed : therefore among them was our Religion.

And note here that Popery it felf was not ripe for a corrup. tion of the Christian faith professed, till Luthers oppolition heightned them. For the Scripture was frequently before, by Papifts held to be a most sufficient Rule of faith, (as I shewed before from the Council of Bafil :) and confequently, Tradition was only pleaded as confervatory and expository of the Scripture; but now the Council of Trent hath in a fort equalled them. And this they were lately driven to, when they found that out of Scripture they were unable to confute or suppress the truth.

2. At the fame time of the Churches oppression by the Papacy, our Religion was visible (and so our Church :) in a more illustrious fort, among the Christians of the most of the world, R Greeks, Greeks, Ethiopians, and the rest, that never were subject to the usurpation of Rome, but only (many of them) took him for the Patriarch prima fedis, but not Episcopus Ecclesia Catholica, or the Governour of the Univerfall Church. So that here was a visibility of our Church doubly more eminent then among the Romanists : I. In that it was the far greatest part of the Catholick Church that thus held our Religion, to whom the Papifts were then but few. 2. In that they did not only hold the fame Positive Articles of faith with us, but also among their Rejections, did Reject the chief of the Popish errors as we do. Befides many particular points named in my Safe Religion, they Rejected with us, the Popes Catbolick Monarchy, the pretended Infallibility of the Pope or his Councils: the new form of the Papall Catholick Church, as Headed by him, with other fuch points; which are the very fundamentall controverfies between us and the Papifts. So that (befides that the Papifts them felves profels our Religion) the major part of the Catholick Church did profess it, with the Rejection of the Papacy and Papall Church; and fo you may as eafily fee where our Religion was before Luther, as where the Catholick Church, or most of Christians were before Lather.

3. And befide both thefe, our Religion was profeffed with a yet greater Rejection of Romifh corruptions, by thoulands, and many thoulands that lived in the Weftern Church it felf, and under the Popes nofe, and oppofed him in many of his ill endeavours against the Church and truth, together with them that gave him the hearing, and were glad to be quiet, and gave way to his tyranny, but never confected to it.

Concerning these we have abundant evidence, though abundance more we might have had, if the power and subtility of the Papall faction had not had the handling of them. 1. We have abundance of Histories that tell us of the bloody wars and contentions that the Emperours both of East and West have had with the Pope to hinder his tyranny; and that they were forced by his power to submit to him, contrary to their former free prosessions. 2. And we have abundance of Treatifes then written against him, both for the Emperours and Princes, and against his doctrine and tyranny: fome flore of them Goldast as hath gathered: And intimations of more you have
