Greeks, Ethiopians, and the rest, that never were subject to the usurpation of Rome, but only (many of them) took him for the Patriarch prima fedis, but not Episcopus Ecclesia Catholica, or the Governour of the Univerfall Church. So that here was a visibility of our Church doubly more eminent then among the Romanists : I. In that it was the far greatest part of the Catholick Church that thus held our Religion, to whom the Papifts were then but few. 2. In that they did not only hold the fame Positive Articles of faith with us, but also among their Rejections, did Reject the chief of the Popish errors as we do. Befides many particular points named in my Safe Religion, they Rejected with us, the Popes Catbolick Monarchy, the pretended Infallibility of the Pope or his Councils: the new form of the Papall Catholick Church, as Headed by him, with other fuch points; which are the very fundamentall controverfies between us and the Papifts. So that (befides that the Papifts them felves profels our Religion) the major part of the Catholick Church did profess it, with the Rejection of the Papacy and Papall Church; and fo you may as eafily fee where our Religion was before Luther, as where the Catholick Church, or most of Christians were before Lather.

3. And befide both thefe, our Religion was profeffed with a yet greater Rejection of Romifh corruptions, by thoulands, and many thoulands that lived in the Weftern Church it felf, and under the Popes nofe, and oppofed him in many of his ill endeavours against the Church and truth, together with them that gave him the hearing, and were glad to be quiet, and gave way to his tyranny, but never confected to it.

Concerning these we have abundant evidence, though abundance more we might have had, if the power and subtility of the Papall faction had not had the handling of them. 1. We have abundance of Histories that tell us of the bloody wars and contentions that the Emperours both of East and West have had with the Pope to hinder his tyranny; and that they were forced by his power to submit to him, contrary to their former free prosessions. 2. And we have abundance of Treatifes then written against him, both for the Emperours and Princes, and against his doctrine and tyranny: fome flore of them Goldast as hath gathered: And intimations of more you have in their own expurgatory Indices. 3. And we have the hiftories and professions of the Albigenses, Waldenses, Bohemians and others that were very numerous, and if Raynerius fay true, they affirmed (about the year one thousand one hundred) that they had coutinued fince the Apofiles, and no other Originall of them is proved. 4. Particular evidence unanswerable is given in by Bishop Usher de Succes. & fratu Eccl. and Answer to the Jesuites, and the Ancient Religion of Ireland, and in Dr. Field, and Morneyes Myfterie of Iniquity, and of the Church, and Illyricus, and many others. 5. Even Generall Popish Councils have contended and born witness against the Popes superiority over a Councill. 6. And in that and other points whole Countreyes of their own are not yet brought over to the Pope. 7. They have still among themfelves Dominicans, Jansenifts, Ge. that are reproached by the Jesuites as fiding with Calvin in many Controverfies, as Catharinus and many more in others. Most points of ours which we oppose to Popery, being maintained by fome or other of them. 8. But the fullest evidence is the certain history or knowledge of of the cale of the common people and Clergy among them, who are partly ignorant of the main matters in Controversies between us (as we fee by experience of multitudes for one, to this day) and are generally kept under the fear of fire, and Iword, and torments; fo that the truth of the Cafe is this : the Roman Bishops were aspring by degrees to be Arch-bishops, and fo to be Patriarchs, and fo to have the first feat and vote, and to be called the Chief Bifbobs or Patriarchs, and at last they made another thing of their office, and claimed (about fix hundred years or more after Christ) to be universal Monarchs or Governours of all the Church: But though this claim was soon laid, it was comparatively but few even in the Weft, that made it any Article of their faith; but multitudes fided with the Princes that would have kept the Pope lower, and the most of the People medled not with the matter, but yielded to neceffity, and gave place to violence, except fuch as the Albigenfes, Bohemians, Wickleffs and the reft that more openly opposed. So that no man could judge of the multitude clearly, which fide they were on, being forced by fire and fword, and having not the freedom to profess their minds.

So that in fumm, our Religion was at first with the Apostles, and the Apostolick Church : and for divers hundred years after, it was with the universal Christian Church : And fince Romes usurpation, it was even with the Romanifis though abused, and with the greater part of the Catholick Church that renounced Popery then, and so do now; and also with the opposers of the Pope in the West under his own nose. You see now what Succession we plead, and where our Church and Religion still was.

If any deny that we are of the fame Church and Religion with the Greeks, Abaísines, and moft of the Christian world, (yea all that is truly Christian) I eafily prove it. r. They that are Christians joyned to Christ the Head, are all of the fame Church and Religion (for none elfe are Christians or united to Christ, but the Church which is his Body) But the fincere Greeks, Abastines, & c. and we are Christians united to Christ the Head: therefore we are all of one and the fame Church and Religion.

2. They that believe the fame holy Scripture, and differ in no effential part of the Christian faith, are of the fame Church and Religion: but fo do both we and all true Christians: therefore we are all of one Church and Religion.

3. They that are truly regenerate, and Justified, hating all known fin, longing to be perfect, Loving God above all, and feeking first his Kingdom and Righteoufnels, and accounting all things but as dung in comparison of Chrift, these are all of the true Catholick Church, and the true Chriftian Religion: but fuch are all that are finzere, both of the Greeks, Abaffines, &c. and the Reformed Churches ; as we prove, 1. To others by our Profession and Practice, by which only they are capable of judging of us. 2. To ourfelves infa'libly against all the Enemies of our falvation in Hell or Earth, by the knowledge and acquaintance with our own hearts, and the experience of the work of God upon them. All the Jesuites in the world cannot perfwade me that I love not God, and hate not fin, and prefer not the Love of Chrift before all the world, when I feel and know that I do; till they can prove that they know my heart better then I do.

4. If Carift Confent to it, and we Confent to it, then we are all (that are fincere in their profession) of the true Catholick Church and Religion (for if he confent and me confent, who is there that is able to break the match?) But Chrift confenteth, and we confent : as we prove by parts. I. His confent is expreffed in his Gospel, that whoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life; and whoever will, may drink of the mater of life freely. 2. And our confent we openly professed at Baptilme, and have frequently renewed, and our own fouls are acquainted with the fincerity of it, whatever any that know not our hearts may fay againft it.

5. All that are truly Baptized, and own their Baptifinal Covenant, are visible members of the true Catholick Church : (For it is the very nature and use of Baptisme to enter us into that Church :) But Greeks, Abassines, Georgians, Armenians, O'c. and Protestants, are all truly Baptized, and own their Baptifmal Covenant : therefore we are all of the true Catholick Church.

What is ordinarily faid against this [neceffion of our Church, I have answered in my safe Religion. I now add an answer to what another, viz. H. Turbervile in his Manuall faith against us in the prefent point. The eafiness of his Arguments, and the open vanity of his exceptions, will give me leave to be the thorter in confuting them.

His first Argument (pag. 43.) is this. [The trae Church of God bach had a continued Succeffion from Christ- But the Protestant Church, and so of all other Sectaries, bath not a consinued Succession from Christ to this time : therefore, &c.] Anfm. 1. I pray thee Reader be an impartial Judge what this man or any Papift ever faid with fense and reason, to prove that the Eastern and Southern Churches have no true Succession. Let them talk what they please of their Schilme, the world knows they have had as good a Succession as Rome. Are they not now of the fame Church and Religion as ever they have been? All the change that many of them have made, hath been but in the entertaining of some fopperies, common to Rome and them. And if any of these (which you call Sectaries) canprove their Succession, it destroyes your Argument and Caule. Me thinks you fhould not ask them, where their Church was before Linther?

2. Butt

2. But how doth this Disputer prove his Minor, that we have no Succeffion ? Only by a flark falfhood : forlooth [by the Concession of the most Learned Adversaries, who freely and unanimon fly Confess that before Luther made his separation from the Church of Rome for nine hundred or one thousand years toge. ther, the whole world was Catholick, and in obedience to the Pope of Rome.

Anfw. O horrid boldness ! that a man that pleads for the fanctity of his Church, dare thus speak so notorious an untruth in the face of the world ! At this rate of Disputing, the man might have faved the labour of writing his Book, and have as honeftly at once have perfwaded his Disciples, that his Adverlaries unanimoully confels that the Papifts caufe is beft. What if the fifteen cited by him had faid fo, when I can bring him one thousand five hundred of another mind, and cite him fifteen for one of another mind, is that the unanimous confession of his Adversaries? But unless his Adversaries were quite beside themselves, there is not one of them could fay as he feigneth them to fay. For doth not the world know, that the Eastern and Southern Churches, far exceeding the Romanists in number, did deny obedience to the Pope of Rome ? Would this perfwade his poor Disciples that we all confess, that there are, or were no Chriftians in the world but Protestants and Papifts ? His first cited Confession is Galvins [that all the Western Churches have defended Popery] A fair proof! Doth this Difputer believe in good fadnefs, that the Weftern Churches are all the world, or a fixth part of the world? But this is the Popifh arguing. What Calvin Speaks of the Western Churches, that is, the prevailing power in each Nation of them, he interprets of all the world. So he deales with Dr. White, who exprelly in the words before those which he citeth, affirmeth the visibility of the Churches of Greece, Ethiope, Armenia, and Rome ; but only faith, that at all times there hath not been visible diftinct companies free from all corruption : which one would think every penitent man should grant that knows the corruption of his own heart and life. It would be tedious to fland to fhew his odious abuse of the rest : when they that fay most of the word [world] but as it is used, Luk: 2. 1. fo much of his first argument.

His fecond is this. Without a continued number of Bishops, Priests, Laicks, succeeding one another in the profession of the same faith from Chrift and his Apostles to this time a continued (ucceffion cannot be had: But Protestants have no continued number, &c.

His

Anfw. And how proves he the Minor ? No how at all; but puts us to disprove it; and withall gives us certain Laws, which we will obey when they grow up to the honour of being reafonable. His first Law is, that We must name none but only such as held explicitely the thirty nine Articles, all granting and denying the same points that the late Protestants of England granted or denyed --- for if they differ from them in any one materiall point, they cannot be esteemed Protestants] Anfm. A learned Law! And what call you [a material point ?] You may yet make what you lift of it. If they differ in any point Esfentiall to Christianity, we grant your imposition to be neceffary. But there is not the least Chronologicall, or Geographicall, or other truth in Scripture, but is a Materiall Point, though not Effential. Must you needs know which these Effentials are? In a word: Those which the Apostles and the ancient Church pre-required the knowledge and profession of, unto Baptism. And because all your fond exceptions are grounded on this one point, I shall crave your patience, while I briefly, but fufficiently prove that Men that err, and that in points materiall, may yet be of the same Church and Religion.

Argum. I. If men that err in points material (that is, precious truths of God, which they ought to have believed.) may yet be true Christians and hold all the Effentials of Christianity: then may they be of the same true Church and Religion : But the former is true : therefore fo is the later. The Antecedent is proved, in that all truths which may be called Materiall, are not of the effence of Christianity.

Argum. 2. The Apostle Thomas erred in a Materiall point (which is now an effentiall) when he would not believe Chrifts Refurrection : and yet was a member of the true Church : therefore, Gc.

Argum. 3. The Papifts err in material points, and yet think themselves of the fame true Church : therefore they must confefs that differing in Material points may be the cafe of members of the fame true Church. For proof of the Minor. I demand : Are

Are none of the points Material that have been to hotly agirated between the Jesuites, and Dominicans and Jansenists? the Papall party, and the Councill party ? The Thomifts, Scotifts, Ockamists, c. At least review the Jesuite Casuists cited by the Jansenists Mysterie of Jesuitism; and tell us whether it be no whit Material Whether a man may kill another for a Crown? or may kill both Judge and witness to avoid an unjust sentence? Or whether a man should go with good meanings into a Whore. house to persuade them to penitence, that hath found by experience that when he comes there he is naught with them himself? Or whether a man may lawfully lie and salumniate to put by a calumny? Or speak fally with mentall refervations? Or forbear loving God many years together, if not all his life? Are these points no whit Material ? You know that one part of you (with a Pope and General Council) are for deposing Heretical Kings, and murthering and stabbing them, and others of you difavow it : Is this no whit material ? Ard yet you are all of one Church and Religion. A hundred more of your differences I could name.

Argum. 4. From initances of the Fathers that bave erred in Material points, and yet are taken to be of the fame Church and Religion. How many Churches differed about Easter day ? what abundance of errors are in your Clementines, and other fuch writers owned by you ? Inftin Martyr was a Millenarie : Numbered divers Infidels with Chriftians; thought that Angels lived by meat, and generated with Devils, G.c. Athenagoras thought that fecond Marriages were comely Adultery and that the Angels fell by the love of women, and begot Gyants of them, G. Irenans hath the like: Theophilas Antioch.worfe : Tertullian and Orrigen you will confels had yet worfe, Clem. Alexand. was for the falvation of Infidels and Heathens : against fwearing and many fuch, befides those before mestioned. Greg. Thaumaturgus hath divers, if the confeffion and other works be his that are afcribed to him. Cyprian, Firmilian, and the whole Council at Carthage were for rebaptizing those baptized by hereticks; Against all Wars and Oaths Lactantins (with many more) was a Millenary, and hath too many great errors. I have no delight to rake into their faults ; but if it be neceffary I shall quickly prove many and great errors by fourty more of them at the leaft. And yet 811 all these or most, are confessed by you to be of one Church and Religion.

Argum. 5. From your own Confessions. Bellarmine, lib. 1. de Beat. SS cap. 6. saith that he seeth not how the sentence of Justin, Irenzus, & can be defended from error. Of Tertullian he saith, There's no trust to be given to him: lib. 4. de Rom. Pont. c. 8. Eusebius he saith was addisted to the Hereticks. Cyprian he saith did seem to fin mortally: de Rom. Pont. lib. 4. cap. 7. Augustine is accused by many Jeluites for going too far from Pelagius. Hierom is oft pluckt by you. And to are many more of the Fathers. And yet you confess some of them at least were of the true Church and Religion.

Argum. 6. If there be no perfect concord to be expected till we come to the place of perfect knowledge and happinels, then it is not perfect concord, that is neceffary to prove us of the fame Church or Religion. But the Antecedent is alas too far past doubt. Therefore, &c.

Argum. 7. If the godly and learned Doctors of the Church (and all men) have fome (alas how many) culpable errors in matters of Religion (yea of faith, if you call that de fide, which we are obliged to believe) then those that have fuch errors may be of the fame Church and Religion: But the Antecedent is fo true and evident that I think none but a blind proud Pharifee will deny himself to beg of God daily to pardon and heal his culpable errors. So much to prove that men of errors and differing minds (if not about the effence of the Church) may be of the fame Church.

2. But why is it that they must all needs explicitely held the thirty nine Articles ? 1. I pray you tell us, whether all your own Church do explicitely hold and believe all your Articles ? that is, all that Popes and General Councils have defined or declared. Dare you fay that one of five hundred, of five thoufand, doth explicitely believe all this? And why then is it neceffiry in our cafe that all must explicitely believe all those Articles? 2. Yea with us it is far more unneceffary. For we take not those Articles for the Rule of our faith, but only the holy Scripture: And therefore you may as well tell us that no man is of our Religion, that did not write or speak all the fame words that fewell, Reignolds, Perkins, or fuch other have written in their whole works. 3. Its eafie to prove for all that, that the fenfe and fubftance of those Articles have been owned by the Churches in all ages.

3. But what if we grant your conclusion, that [elfe they cannot be effeemed Protestants] what of that ? As if none but Prorestants were of the same Church and Religion with us. Sure you think we make a sect of our felves like you, and exclude all others from the Church and Salvation as you do ! The word [Protestant] is not the first denomination of our Religion from its effence; for fo we call our felves [Christians] only; But it is a title that accidentally accrewed to our Religion, from our Protesting against your innovations and corruptions; and our Rejecting the errors contrary to our Religion which you had introduced. Now those that were not involved in your errors as our forefathers were, but lived at a further distance from you, might have no occasion to make such a Protestation; and yet be of the same Church and Religion as we are.

Now to your particular Laws. I. Saith H.T. [Let him not name the Waldenfes: for they held the Real prefence, that the Apostles were Lay men, that all Magistrates fall from their dignity by any mortal sin, that it is not lawful to swear, &cc. and Waldo lived but in one thousand one bundred and sixty.

Anfw. 1. We have better affurance of the faith of the Waldenfesin their own published Confessions, then from the mouth of their Adverfaries. 2. The Lutherans hold the real prefence, and yet are of the fame Religion and Church with us. 3. The Aportles were Lay-men in the Jews account and fenfe, as not being Priests or Levites, but not in Christians account that believed their mission : and thus thought the Weldenses. 4. They thought that Magistrates and Ministers do by Mortal fin forfeit all the right and title to their office, from which themfelves may have comfort and justification in judgement : But they never thought that they were not to be obeyed by others, or that their actions were not valid for the Churches good. 5. Many of the ancientelt Fathers thought it unlawfull to fwear at all, that yet are cited by you as of your Church. But the Waldenfes are flandered in these points. 6. Though Waldo was but about one thousand one hundred and fixty, yet the same Religion and Church under other names, and before those names were fastned ned on them, was much elder, as Raynerins may fatisfie you. So that for all this, the Waldenfes and we are of one Church and Religion.

He adds [Let him not name the Huffites, for they held Mass, Transabstantiation and seven Sacraments, that the universal Church confifted only of the predestinate, &c.] Anfw. O what a fort of men have we to deal with ? The Council of Constance burnt John Huls to ashes for faying that there remained the substance of Bread and Wine after Confectation. and that Tranfub. Stantiation was a new word to deceive men mith] as Binnins himfelf expressent among their accusations of him : And among the articles for discovery of the Huffices, one was Whether they take it to be a mortall fin to reject the Sacraments of Confirmation, extream unction and marriage.] And yet now Hass is burnt for it, the poor lay Papifts are perfwaded by their deceivers, that the Huffites were for Transubstantiation and leven Sacraments. Why then did a General Council accule or receive acculation and witnels against him for the contrary? 2. That the univerfal Church as invisible, and as taken in the first fignification, containeth none but the truly fanctified (and fo predestinate) we believe as well as Huss: though in the fecond Analogical fignification, the Church as visible, conraineth all the Professors of faith and Holineis, whether fincere or not. 3. And that they were condemned by the Council of Constance, and Huss and Hierom burnt after they had a fafe conduct, doth shew that the faith of Papists is perfidiousnels, (for why should the people be more just then a General Council?) but it fnews not that we and they are not of the fame Church or Religion : you condemned and burnt those of our Religion too: therefore you thought at least that we are neer kin.

But H. T. proceeds with his precepts [Let him not name the Albigenses: for they beld all marriages to be unlawfull, and all things begotten ex coitu to be unclean: They held two Gods, &c.] An/w. These are not only such faithoods by which you uphold your cause, but the more inexcusable and shameles, by how much the more frequently and fully detected long ago and yet continued in. Perrin, Viguerius and many others might have prevented your error : especially Bishop User de Succes. Eccles.

CAP. 6.

cap. 6, 7, 8, 9, & 10. who hath given you enough out of your own writers to have fatisfied you; and fhewed you, that it was from the Arrians and Manichees, inhabiting those Countreyes among them, that the heavy charges of Bernard, Eckbertus Schonaugiens and others were occasioned. And see by him there cited what the same Bernard saith against your Church of Rome, and then judge which he spoak hardlier of.

A's for the Cathariks next added, they were not the Puritan Waldenfes as you speak, but part of the Manichees : and if such as they are described, we are content to lose their names, and are not ambitious to be reputed their Succeffors.

He adds [Let him not name the Wicklifians : for they held ; that all things came to pafs by fatall necessity; That Princes and Magistrates fell from their dignity and power by mortall fin.] Anfw. We know by many of Wicklifs own books printed and manuscript what his judgement was, what ever your. Council at Constance accuse him of. It was a Divine Necessity opposed to uncertainty, and to the determination of an unruled will, that he mentioneth. And do not your Jesuites lay as heavy a charge on the Dominicans fometimes? and with as great caufe may many of your Schoolmen be disclaimed for this as Wicklife, if you will understand him, and them. Wicklife was known to obey and teach obedience to Magistrates. But is it not a fine world, when wicklife must not be of our Church because he is supposed to deny the power of Magistrates in mortal fin? and yet the Pope and his Council determine that Princes or Lords that will not root out fuch as the Pope cals Hereticks must be cast out, and their Countrey given to others. It feems you take wicklife to be some kin to your felves. But we doubt not but he was of the Catholick Church and Religion, and therefore of the fame with us.

H.T. adds [Let bim not name the Grecians: for they rejected the Communion of Protestants. Censur. Eccl. Orient. They were at least seven hundred or eight hundred year in Communion with the Church of Rome. — they were united to the Church of Rome again in the Council of Florence: They held Transabstantiation, seven Sacraments, unbloody Sacrifice, Prayer to Saints, and for the dead.

An/w If one Patriark, or twenty men reject our Communion, whats that to the Millions of Greek Christians that never rejected it? And whats that to all Patriarcks before and after that rejected it not? Did Cyril reject our Communion, that hath published a Protestant confession, and was so maligned, and treacheroufly dealt with to the death, and faifly acculed to the Turks by the Jesuites, for his constancy ? 2. Do you think the world knoweth not by what inducements you drew a few poor men at Florence to fubscribe to a certain union with you? and what death the Patriark dyed? and how the Greeks refented his fact ? and what a return they made to your Church ? I pray perfwade your felves that they and we and all are Papifts. 3. If the Greeks did disclaim Communion with us, they are nevertheless of the fame Church and Religion with us, for all that. Paul and Barnabas were both Christians when they parted in diffention. If one neighbour in anger call another Traitor unjuftly, and fay he will have no Society with him, they may be both the Kings subjects and members of one Common wealth for all that. 4. As to the Greeks opinions, and the Papifts falle accusations of them, I have spoken already against pretended Veridicus in my Safe Religion. It is not you nor all the Jesuites on earth that can prove the Greeks and us to be fo diftant, as not to be of the fame Catholick Religion and Church.

You add [Let him not name the Egyptians: for they held Transubstantiation and unbloody Sacrifice, as is manifest by their Liturgies; but denyed the procession of the Holy Ghost from the Son, and held but one will in Christ. Godignus de reb. Abas. lib. I. cap. 28.] Anfw. I. Godignus talks not of the Egyptians but the Abaffines. This learned man it feems, is fo home-bred, and confined to the Roman Church, that he little regardeth the rest of the Christian world; or else he would have known a difference between the Egyptians and Abaffines: He is likely to know well the true Catholick Church that while. 2. You cannot prove that they hold Transubstantion. Nor shall your bare naming their Liturgy make us believe it. The Egyptian Liturgy you tell us not where to find, nor I suppose do you know your felves. An Ethiopick Liturgy your compilers of the Bibliotheca Patrum have given us, Tom. 6. But 1. It hath no mention of Transubstantiation in it, that I can find, but only a

Hoc

Hoc eft Corpus, &c. which we fay in our Administration as well as they. 2. And I find that Liturgy fo contrary to the reports of your own writers concerning the practice of the Ethiopians, (as about the Elevation, Confirmation, Ge.) that I must needs conclude, that either the Liturgy or much of it is forged, or that the generality of your own Relators of their practice are grofly deceived, and do deceive, (which is not likely, becaufe they are many, and write at feveral times, and it is against them-Telves.) 3. And as for the proceffion of the Holy Ghost, and the denyal of two mills in Christ, some of your own writers profels, that the former in the Greeks, and the later in many others, is found to be but a verbal difference, the fame words not fignifying the fame thing in their effeem as in ours, 4. However, if they would but become the fubjects of the Pope, they might be of your Church for all this : and therefore feeing they are the fubjeds of Chrift, we shall take both Ethiopians and Copries to be of the fame Catholick Church with us, for all thefe and many other of their errors.

Lastly faith H. T. [Let him not cite the Armenians: for they hold but one nature in Christ, and that his fless was changed into his Divinity, and were condemned by the Council of Calcedon.]

Anfw. The Armenians are a confiderable part of the Catholick Church. Binnins in the life of Engenius the third faith, their Catholick (fo call they their chief Bishop) hath infinite, that is, above a theusfand Bishops under him. Oth. Frisingensis hath the like.

1. Though they held but one nature in Chrift, it was not by permixtion or confusion of the natures, as Entiches imagined, but Conjunction or Coalition : Nicephor. Hift. Ecclef. lib. 18. eap. 53. And divers of your own writers fay the difference is found to be but in words. And even all this they now deny, as you may fee in their own Confession published not eighty years ago, Artic. 26, 27, 28, 29, 30. &c. 2. That they change the humane nature of Christ into the Divinity, is your flander, and therefore no good argument. 3. That they were condemned by (the five Acts, or in any Act of) the Council of Calcedon, is another untruth : fure you go much upon truft, that dare venture to shuff your book with such fallhoods. But the best is, your fimple Papists know not but all is true : they must believe you, you, and cannot difprove you. The Armenians then and we are of one Catholick Church and Religion, notwithflanding all your forgeries and vain exceptions. I know that one or two perty Councils chid them for not mixing water with wine in the Eucharist; and more then that, the Canons of the General Council called Quinifexti do condemn the same error as theirs, and also their deputing the Sons of Priefts successively to the Prieshood, and not shaving their hair : and their eating eggs and cheefe on Saturdayes and Sundayes in Lent. But I. We fear not to fay that we are of the fame Church with men that err more then not fhaving, or then eating eggs and cheefe comes to, or any of this. 2 And remember that this is one of your Reprobate Councils. 3. And one that the third time (when two General Councils before had done it) did Canon. 36. give aqualia privilegia, equal priviledges to the Seat of Constansinople as Rome had. So that I think you will have no mind of this General Council. And if any other have judged them Eutichians, though I renounce that opinion, yet I must tell you, that my Charity covereth far greater errors in the Papifts, or else I could not take them for Christians. If the Question bad ever been started in a Council, whether mans foul and body are two Natures or but one, its ten to one but it would have made another herefie, and yet perhaps the real difference have been no more then it is now there is no Controversie about it. But H.T. addeth [Protestants pretence to the Fathers of the first five hundred years, is very idle; because were it true, as it is most false, that those Fathers were Protestants, yet could not that suffice to prove them a continued Succession of one thousand fix hundred years.]

Anfw. 1. It fufficeth us if those Fathers were Christians, as we are, though having no usurper of an universal Monarchy to Protest against, they were not to be called Protestants. 2. It is an idle pretence indeed, to go about to prove a Succession of one thousand fix hundred years, by the bare instance of five hundred years : but your idle head hath forged more idle pretences then this, by way of calumniation. But yet we may prove the Antiquity of our Religion from those Fathers, and the Novelty of yours. and a Succession for those five hundred years : and for the rest, if the whole Christian world had been big enough enough for you to see, you might have discerned our Evidence of a turther Succession.

He adds [2. Because those of the fixth age must needs know what was the Religion and Tenets of them that lived in the fifth age, by whem they were instructed, and with whom they daily conversed better then our Protestants can now do; who have Protested on their salvation, that it was the very same with theirs, received from them by word of month, &c. 7

An/w. I. Any thing will ferve for the fimple that will believe you. But I pray you tell us whether it were all or fome of the fixth age that made this folemn Protestation that you mention. If all or most, or the ten thousandth man, tell us where we may find that Proteflation. If a few, they were not the fixth age. 2. If Pope Boniface alone was not the fixth age, tell us where that age did Proteft on their falvation, that the Bishop of Rome was taken by their Fore fathers for the univerfal Monarch and Head of the Church (beyond his bare Primacy of order) 3. What age bath protefted on their falvation, that the Roman prohibition of reading Scriptures, or of receiving the Eucharift in both kinds, or other points anon to be mentioned, were the Religion of their Fore-fathers, and fo from age to age? 4. I pray you tell us where to find this Protestation of the tenth age, which Genebrard, Bellarmine, and others of your own fo complain of, as having not learned men, nor any Council, but Apostatical Popes and an ignorant wicked Clergy, that suspected a man of Herefie if he underflood Greek or Hebrew, and of Magick or Conjuring, if he medled with Mathematicks ? 5. It is legible in the writings of the fixth Age, that they did fetch the doctrine of the fifth age from their writings, and not only from word of mouth. What elfe mean the prefervation of those writings and those numerous citations out of them ? Nay more; they would not truft their memories in a General Council for the Canons of the Church: no nor for the Canons of the next preceding Council, no nor for the Common Creed; but had all read and repeated out of the writing before the Council when there was occasion. And let Confcience be free to speak truth for a few fentences, and tell us in good fadnefs, whether you believe that the Oral Tradition of all the Church did preferve the Knowledge of Augustines, Epiphanius.

Epiphanius, Chrysoftomes, &c. doctrine, so much as their writings do ? Is the doctrine of Aquinas, Scotus, Gabriel, &c. yea the Council of Trent preferved now more certainly in mens memories, then in writing ? If fo, they have better memories then mine that keep them, and they have better hap then I that light of fuch keepers. For I can fcarce tell how to deliver my mind fo, in any difficult point, but one or other is misunderstanding and misreporting it; and by leaving out or changing a word, perhaps make it another matter : fo that I am forced to refer them to my writings : and yet there by neglect they milinterpret me, till I open the book it felf to them.

6. Eicher the Fathers of the fifth age are intelligible in their writings, or not. If they be, then we may understand them I hope with industry. If they be not, then I. Much less were their transient speeches intelligible. 2. And then the writings of the fixth age be not intelligible, nor of any other : and fo we cannot understand the Council of Trent (as the Papifts do not that controvert iss fense voluminoully,) nor can we know the Churches judgement.

7. By your leave, the Roman Corrupters take on them fo much Power to make new Laws and new Articles of Faith quoad nos, by definitions, and to dispense with former Laws, that unless they are all Knights of the Poft, they can never fwear that they had all that they have from their Fore-fathers.

8. Well ! but all this is the least part of my answer. But I grant you that the fixth age understood and retained the do-Ctrine of the fifth age, and have delivered it to us. But that there were no Hereticks or corrupters, you will not fay your felves. Well then I the far greatest part of the Catholick Church did not only receive from the fifth age the fame Christian Religion, but allo kept themfelves from the groffeft corruptions of the Pope and his flatterers, that were then but a small part : And thus we flick to the Catholick Church fucceeding to this day, and you to an usurper that then was newly set on the Throne of univerfal Soveraignty. So that your chief Argument treadeth Popery in the dirt: becaufe the greater part of the Catholick Church not only in the fifth and fixth age, but in the feventh, eighth, nineth, tenth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth and fixteenth ages, have been aliens or enemies to the Roman universal Monarchy :

139 45 : Monarchy: therefore if one age of the Church knew the mind of the former age, better then the Pope did, we may be fure that the Pope is an usurper.

The third Argument of H. T. is, that the Fathers of the first five bundred years taught their tenets: therefore its impossible they should be for the Protestants. Answ. I. Protestants are Christians, taking the Holy Scriptures for the Rule of their faith. If the Fathers were Christians, they were for the Protestants, but its certain they were Christians. If you could prove that they were for fome of your mistakes, that would not prove them against the Protestants in the doctrine of Christianity, and the boly Scriptures; and fo that we are not their Successions in Christianity, and of the fame Church, which was it that you should have proved, but forgot the question. And of this we shall speak to you more anon.

Well! by this time I have fufficiently shewed the fuccession of our Church : and continuation of our Religion from the Apostles, and where it was before Luther, and given you the Catholick Church instead of a dozen or twenty names in each age, which it seems will fatisfie a Papist; but yet we have not done with them, but require this following Justice at their bands.

Seeing the Papifts do fo importunately call to us for Catalogues, and proof of our fucceffion, Reafon and Juffice requireth that they first give us a Catalogue of Papifts in all ages, and provethe fucceffion of their Roman Catholick Church: which they can never do while they are men.

And here I must take notice of the delufory ridiculous Catalogue wherewith H. T. begins his Manual. His Argument runs thus [That is the only true Church of God, which hath had a continued faceffion from Chrift and his Apostles, to this day, (very true:) But the Church now in Communion with the Sea of Romeand no other, bath had a continued fucceffion from Chrift and his Apostles to this time: therefore, G.C.] For the proof of the Minor he giveth us a Catalogue. And here note the milery of poor fouls that depend on these men, that are deluded with such stuff, that one would think they should be assumed the world should see from them.

1, What if his Catalogue were true and proved, would it prove.

prove the Exclusion, that [no other Church:] had a succession ? Doth it prove that Constantinople, or Alexandria had no such succession, because the Romanists had it? where is there ever a word here under this Argument to prove that exclusive part of his Minor ?

2. And note how he puts that for the Queflion that is not the Question between us. A fair beginning! The Question is not about Churches in Communion with yon, but about Churches in Subjection to you: But this is but a pious fraud, to fave men by decieving them. The Ancient Church of Rome had the Church of Hierusalem, Corinth, Philippi, Ephesand many a hundred Churches in Communion with her, that never were in fubjection to ber.

3. And if the Papifts can but prove themfelves true Christians, I will quickly prove that the Protestants are in Communion with them still, as Christians, by the fame Head (Christ) the same spirit, baptism, faith, love, hope, &c. though not as Papists, by fubjection to the fame ufurper.

4. Our question is of the Universal Church : And this man nameth us twenty or thirty men in an age that he faith were professors of their Religion : And doth he believe in good fadness that twenty or thirty men are either the univerfall Church, or a fufficient proof that it was of their mind ?

5. But principally, did this man think that all, or any befides their subjects had their wits so far to seek, as to believe that the perfons named in his Catalogue were Papifts, without any proof in the world, but meerly because they are listed here by H.T.? Or might he not to as good purpole have faved his labour, and faid nothing of them?

6. But what need we go any further ? we will begin with him at his first Century, and so to the second, and if he can prove that Jelus Christ, or the Virgin Mary, or John Baptist, or the Apolites, or any one of the reft that he hath named, were Papilts, (much more all of them) I am refolved prefently to turn Papist. But unless the man intended to provoke his reader to an unreverent laughter about this abuse of holy things, one would think he should not have named John Bapist, that was dead not only before Rome had a Church, but alfo before the time that Bellarmine and his Brethren pretend that Peter re-T 2 ceived ceived his Commission, to be the universall Head. And did not this writer know that Protestants can give him the fame names as for them ? and if printing them be proof, their proof is as good : If it be not, what proof thall we have? Our proof is the Holy Scriptures, written by the Infpiration of the Holy Ghoft in those times. Thence we prove that the first Church held the fame belief as we have : yea, though it be not incumbent on us, we will thence prove that the Catholick Church was not then Papifts. Why elfe do we fiill appeal to Scriptures, and they refuse to fland to the tryal of it any otherwise then as expounded by the Pope, but that we are confident, and they diffident of them ? We know the Apofles faith from the Apofiles; but the Papifts will not know it but from the prefent Church of Rome. They tell you the Apofiles were for them : but how know we that? Why by the reftimony of the next age : and where is that teffimony ? Why the third age received it; and how is that proved? Why because the fourth age was of their mind ; And how prove you that? Why in the upfhor, because the present age is of their mind : Why but most Chri. stians of the present age, are against them : yea, but they are none of the Church : It is only the prefent Church of Rome. Well ! but the present Church of Rome represented in a General Council may err. I, but the Pope cannot in Cathedra and in approving a Councill. So that the fumm is this : If the Pope himfelf may be judge, the Apofiles were Papifts : But if the Apofiles may be heard themfelves, they were none.

I make no doubt (though Bellarmine deny it,) but other Churches can prove as good a succession as the Romane, as to Bishops; And poor Bellarmine after all is fain to give up this Mark as infussicient to prove a true Church. Lib. 3. de Eccles. cap. 8. Dico secundo, Argumentum à successione legitima adferri à nobis pracipne ad probandum non esse Ecclessam ubi non est hac successio, quod quidem evidens est: ex quo tamen non colligitur necessario, ibi esse Ecclessam ubi est succession. By his own confession then, succession will not prove the Romanists a true Church.

But as to a fucceffion of Religion, and a continuation of the Catholick Church, for my part, I am fo far from declining it, in argumentation, that I here folemnly profess to all the Papifts.

pifts that thall read thefe words, that, AS SOON AS I SHALL SEE ANY CERTAIN PROOF, BY CATALOGUE OR ANY OTHER WAY, THAT THE CATHOLICK CHURCH, HATH SUC-CESSIVELY FROM AGE TO AGE BEEN PAPISTS, IWILL TURN PAPIST WITHOUT DELAY: AND I CHALLENGE THEM TO GIVE US SUCH PROOF IF THEY CAN.

Nay if they will prove that in the first age alone, or the fecond, or third alone, the Catholick Church were Papists, I am am refolved to turn Papist: Nay I am most confident they cannot prove that in any one age to this day, the Catholick Church were Papists:

And as to H. Ts. Catalogue, I return him further answer, that no one named by him in the first age had any one of their errors: And no one named by him to the year four hundred, (I may add, to the year fix hundred, if his false catalogue be truly corrected) was a Papist; fo well hath he proved the Popish Succession.

But for the plainer opening of this, I shall add the discussion of another of their deceits.

CHAP. XXV.

Detect. 16. A Nother notable fraud of the Papifts, is, to confound all their own errors and corruptions together, and then to instance in some of those errors that are common to them with some others, and to omit the Essential parts of Popery: And so they would make the world believe, that if they prove the Antiquity of any points in d sterence between them and us, they do thereby prove the antiquity of Popery (and so of the succession) And so they would make our Religion also Essentially to consist in every inferiour difference between us.

7

Suffer them not therefore thus to juggle in the dark, but diflinguish between the Essentials of Popery, or the main difference between them and us, and the other errors, which are not proper to them alone.

Thus
