Courteous Reader,

Hou hast here the substance of what bath past in Writing between a Baptist and a Pedo-baptist, about the point of Baptism, that hath been long Controverted among us. The reason why the Pedo=baptist goes Nameless, is because the Author hath a Respect for him : First, Up= on the account of his Abilities. Secondly, Upon the Account of his Moderation in Writing, not dipping his Pen fo much in Vinegar as others have done. And, Thirdly, Upon the Account of his Conversation. > Have received your Paper, entitled, Infant-Bapiifm Vindicated, and have returned my Anfwer.

Your first Argument is this, Those that are to be entred into Covenant with God, and to be admitted Members of the visible Church, have a right to Baptism, and ought to be baptized, there being no other way of divine institution (under the Gospel) of admission of members, but by baptism.

But the Infants of believing Parents ought to be admitted into covenant with God, members of the visible Church, therefore they have a right to baptism.

First, I answer, As to the confequence of your Major Proposition, which is this, That those that are folemnly to be admitted into the visible Church, (if by the visible Church you mean an instituted Church) have a right to baptism, I grant it, though I deny that Baptism is the formal conflictuting cause of Church-Membership: For that which may be but once administred, is not the formal, conflictuting cause; but Baptism may be A 3 but once administred, therefore it is not the formal conftituting caufe. For Example, A Performay be juftly ejected, and upon repentance received again: But if baptifm were the formal conftituting caufe, then must he be as often baptized as received.

Secondly, I deny your Minor, which is, That Children of Believing Parents ought to be entred into covenant with God, and admitted Members of the vifible Church.

(1.) You fay, the Covenant that God made with Abraham, belonged to his Seed; and while his feed were in an infant ftate, they were in covepant, and engaged to God by circumcifion, which was then the feal of the Covenant, Gen. 17. 7, 8, 11, 12.

To this I answer, First, This proves not that the Children of Believers ought folemnly to be taken into covenant with God, and admitted Church-Members, the Dispensation being changed, you your felf do not tye to the rules of that dispensation: Under the legal dispensation a Bastard was not to enter into the Congregation of the Lord unto the tenth Generation, Deut. 23.2. but you will admit a Bastard to enter in.

Secondly, I deny that all the feed of Abraham were circumcifed; they were the Males only that were circumcifed, and yet the Females were his Seed alfo.

Thirdly, I deny that covenant to which circumcifion was fet as the token, Gen. 17.11, 12. to be the covenant of Grace: That covenant that might bebroken was not the covenant of Grace; but the Covenant to which Circumcifion was fet as the token, was a Covenant that might be broken, Gen. 17.14. therefore not the covenant of grace.

First, Answer, This I grant you ; but I deny that covenant to be the covenant of Grace, for the Scripture makes a manifest difference between these two covenants.

First, They differ in respect of the Subjects; the fubjects of that covenant, Deut. 29. were the natural feed, confidered as fach, but these were not the fubjects of the covenant of Grace, Rom. 9.6,7,8. Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect, for they are not all Israel that are of Israel; neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children, but in I faac shall thy feed be called : So then they that are the children of the flefh, thefe are not the children of God, but the children of the promife are accounted for the feed : The Apostle distinguisheth here between the children of the flefh and the children of the promife; and the fame might be noted of Jacob and Efau, the one being hated, and the other loved : Must Efau be owned a fubject of the covenant of Grace, who was an object of the Fathers hatred ? There are no more to be accounted the fubjects of the covenant of Grace, either of Jews or Gentules, then are related to Chrift, Gal. 3. 29. If ye be Chrifts, then are ye Abrahams feed, and heirs according to the promise.

Secondly, That Covenant contained curfes, (as well as bleffings ) Deut. 29. 20, 21. which might fall on the fubjects thereof without a fanctified use of them, as they did on the evil figs, Jer. 24. 8, 9, 10. but the covenant of Grace contains bleflings only, Jer. 31. 33, 34. That these were two covenants, appears,

First, Becaufe that covenant was broken, verse

Secondly, That Covenant contained only temporal bleffings, Deut. 28. God did never promife a New Heart and a New Spirit by vertue of that covenant; if he had, all the natural feed fhould have had the enjoyment of it, for he is a faithful God, a covenant-keeping God; but the covenant of Grace contains fpiritual bleffings, Jer. 31. 33, 34. I will write my law in their bearts, they fhall all know me: I will forgive their iniquities, and remember their fins no more.

Thirdly, That Covenant was conditional, as appears in that it was broken, fer. 31. 32. but the covenant of Grace is abfolute, verfe 33, 34. That covenant was an old covenant, Heb. 8. laft. the covenant of grace a new, Heb. 9. 15. That covenant was the first, the covenant of Grace the fecond, Heb. 9. 18. The covenant of Grace was a better covenant, Heb. 8. 6. the promiles were better.

First, In that they contained fpiritual bleffings. Secondly, In that they were abfolute; that covenant is abrogated, Zach. 11.10, 11. but the covenant of Grace still remains: That covenant being thus distinguished from the covenant of grace, no Argument can be drawn for the Church membership and baptism of the children of Believers under the Gospel from that covenant dispensation.

In the next place you endeavour to prove that covenant to be the covenant of Grace, to which I need make no reply, it being answered already; only I shall examine your Scriptures, Rom. 4. 13. Gal. 3. 14, 16, 17. That the covenant here spoken of is the covenant of Grace, I grant; but these prove not the covenant, Dent. 29. to be the covenant of Grace, and that's the Work you have to do. Secondly,

Secondly, These Scriptures do not prove the natural feed to be the fubjects of the covenant of Grace, but the contrary ; he faith not of feeds, as of many, but of one, that is Christ, Christ Mystical, Head and Members, Chrift and the Elect, verfe 29. If. ye be Chrifts, then are ye Abraham's feed, and heirs according to the promise.

First, Prove your relation to Christ, and then you may conclude your relation to Abraham; to Abraham and to his feed were the Promifes made, not to every believer and his feed : Abraham had but two feeds, a natural and a fpiritual ; the Gentiles are not his natural feed, nor can they be known to be fpiritual, till they walk in the steps of Abraham's faith.

Secondly, As I have denied that covenant that was figned by circumcifion to be the covenant of Grace, fo I deny that the natural feed of Abraham did enter into that covenant by circumcifion, their interest in that covenant was antecedent to their circumcifion.

First, The covenant was made with Abraham fourteen years before circumcifion was appointed, Gen. 15. 18. compared with Gen. 17.

Secondly, They were born interested in the covenant, but not circumcifed till the eighth day; if they had not had an interest in the covenant, then neglect of circumcifion could not have been a breach of the covenant, as it was, Gen. 17. 14.

Thirdly, The Females were not circumcifed at all, and yet they had an interest in the covenant as well as the Males.

Fourthly, I deny that interest which the natural feed had in that covenant, and that Church-membership which then they enjoyed, to be sufficient to priviledge them to Baptism. Those that came to John to be baptized, Mat. 3. and Luke 3. and were were rejected, had an interest in that covenant, they were Church-Members, they had Abraham to their Father, but this would not do, they must bring forth fruit meet for repentance; yet had they as strong an argument as any you have brought for the baptizing of infants.

They were all interefted in the covenant, all Church-members, to whom Chrift and John preached; but first difcipled, and then baptized, John 4.

Your last Argument is this, That if admitting infants into covenant with God, and so into the visible Church, be repealed, it belongs to us to shew when and how.

I answer, before you challenge me to shew a repeal, you should first prove that this was once a Gospel-institution, as you hinted in your first argument, yet I am not to seek for a repeal of that Membership, and that covenant interess that you insist upon; it was then repealed when Christ was offered up, when they weighed for his price thirty pieces of filver, Zach. 11. 10. then was the covenant broken that God had made with all the people, their Covenant priviledges then ceased, their Churchstate was then dissolved, their Tabernacle fell, all their Church Ordinances were at an end; Ifrael was no longer a separate people.

That it was then repealed, may further appear, in that as foon as Chrift was rifen, there was a new commiffion given out, Mar. 28. 19. Mark 16. 15. according to which the Apoftles were to act; the old measures that you have infifted upon were laid by, and new measures were then taken, Church-Membership was no longer a birth-priviledge; Henceforth know we no man after the flesh, 2 Cor. 5. a Jew that before was born a Church-Member was no longer accounted fuch, unless in the judgment of of Charity he was new born, 1 Cor. 12. By one spirit are we all baptized into one body, and made to drink into one spirit, whether lew or Gentile. Eph. 4. 4. There is one body, and one spirit, even as ye are called in one bope of your calling : And to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of God: And can we think that this one baptifm belongs to more than the members of that one body? The univerfal visible Church extends not it felf beyond the limits of this one body, and there is not one uncalled and unfanctified member to be found in this body; they are all fuch in the judgment of Charity, and in receiving members into a particular inflituted Church the Apoftles keep close to the commission, Acts 2. 41. They first discipled, then baptized, then added unto the Church; as many as Gladly received the word were baptized, and the fame day there were added unto them about three thousand Jouls. The Titles given to particular Churches shew that they were Saints, fuch as in the judgment of charity were inherently holy, each individual member that was judged meet to fland in a Church-flate was fo accounted, 2 Thef. 1. 3. Your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of every. one of you all abounderh : This is not applicable to Infants, Phil. 1. 5, 6,7. Fie that hath begun a good work in you, will not cease to perfect the same, as it is meet for me to think fo of you all.

Your conclusion is this, That if the infants of Believers are still in the covenant, then they have a right to Baptism, the seal of the covenant.

lanswer, This seemeth to be diverse, if not contradictory to what precedes : Firft, You contend for entrance into the covenant by baptilm : Now you make an Interest in the covenant the ground of baptism, which you fay is the feal of their intereft.

Arguments for Believers Baptism in opposition to Infant Baptism.

Give me leave now to offer you fomething for Believers Baptism in opposition to Infants.

If fuch as are discipled to Christ by the Word are the only subjects of baptism, according to Christ's Commission, then Infants are not.

But such as are discipled to Christ by the Word are the only subjects of Baptism, according to Christ's Commission, therefore Infants are not.

The first Proposition I prove thus,

First, If Infants be uncapable of being discipled to Christ by the Word, then they are not the subjects of baptism according to Christ's commission; but they are so, Ge.

Secondly, If Infants be uncapable of learning Chrift by the Word, then they are uncapable of being difcipled to Chrift by the Word; but they are fo,  $\mathcal{O}c$ .

Thirdly, If Infants are uncapable of learning Selfdenial for Chrift by the Word, then are they uncapable of being difcipled to Chrift by the Word; but they are fo, &c.

The fecond Propolition is proved, Mat. 28. 19. Go, disciple to me all nations, baptizing them, &cc. First disciple, and then baptize. That the fubjects of baptism must be discipled, I shall add one Argument :

If the Apostles, who well understood their Lords commission, did first disciple and then baptize, then are disciples the only subjects of Baptism, but they did fo, Alts 2.41. This was their practice every every where, not one inftance can be given to the Contrary; there is no prefident of their baptizing of Infants, no, not one, and the want of a prefident does ftrongly conclude that there was no precept; now if there be neither precept nor prefident to be found, then is there no fuch thing as Infant-baptifm of Divine-inftitution.

I come now to reply to your fecond Papers, which you fent to vindicate Infant-baptifm, as you entitled them.

Your Major Proposition you fay I grant, which was this, That those that ought to admitted members of the visible church, ought to be baptized.

Reply, Here you mifreprefent it; I faid, if by the visible Church you meant an inflituted Church, I did grant it; I know no formal way of admitting members into the universal visible church, unless you call the preaching of the word the formal way, for those that are called out of the world by the preaching of the Word to embrace Jefus Christ, are upon their owning and professing of him, to be judged members of the universal visible Church, provided their conversation does answer their profession.

But here you fay, I deny that Baptism is the formal cause of their admission; and the reason I give for it is this, that if baptism were the formal cause of Church-membership, then it must be repeated when an Excommunicated Person is reflored.

To this you anfwer, that there is no need to repeat baptifm, for Excommunication does not wholly unchurch a perfon, or make him no member of the Church.

Reply, Here I must take your own word, for you offer no proof to it, and your bare word cannot in the least shake my Argument; and now give me me leave to tell you, that a perfon juftly excommulnicated is not only cut off from communion, but is caft out from being a member of that particular body in which he once ftood, 1 Cor. 5.13. Wherefore put away from among your felves that wicked perfon: Mat. 28.17. Let bim be to thee as an Heathen Man or a Publican.

Your Minor Proposition you fay was this, But the children of believers ought to be entred into covenant with God, and admitted members of the visible Church. This you fay I deny, though I grant that the covenant of God made with Abraham took in his Children, and that they were Church-Members under the Law. You fay, the reason of my denial is this, because the administration is changed, the Gospel-administration differs from that under the Law, so that it does not follow that the children of Believers are now to be admitted by Baptism. Your answer to this is, that the covenant of grace is differently administred under the Law and Gospel, but those different administrations do not make the covenant different.

Reply, First, Here is a grant given that the administration is changed, and if fo, then must we take our measures from the law of the new administration, and not from the old.

Secondly, I grant the covenant of Grace to be the fame; that which I denied was, that the covenant which was figned with circumcifion was the covenant of Grace.

Secondly, You fay, the covenant that God made with Abraham and his feed was the Gofpel-Covenant.

Reply, I never denied that neither, (if by his feed are intended his fpiritual feed) that which I denied was, that the covenant God made with Abrahum and and his natural feed, (confidered as fuch ) was the covenat of Grace.

You fay, it was the Gospel Covenant, and that God promifed to be a God to him, and to his feed after him, implying that he would afford to them that were in covenant with him all bleffings that could be expected from a gracious God, Gen. 17.7.

Reply, First, I grant that covenant Gen. 17. 7. to be the covenant of Grace; but here take notice, the feed were his fpiritual feed, not his natural, confidered as fuch, Verse 45. A Father of many nations have I made thee : The Apostle Rom. 4. 16, 17. quotes this very Text, and applies it to the fpiritual feed.

Secondly, God hath here made himfelf over to be their God, absolutely to beftow on them all bleffings that might be expected from a gracious God, and what can these be less than Justification, San-Clification, and Glorification ? And if fo, thefe two things will follow : First, That none of the fubjects of this covenant shall mils of either of these bleffings. Secondly, That fuch of Abraham's feed that go without these bleffings were never the fubjects of this covenant.

Thirdly, You fay, the covenant that God made with Abraham, Gen. 17.7. is more likely to be the covenant of Grace than that Gen. 15. 18. which I grant to be the covenant of Grace.

Reply, This is your mistake, in faying, I granted that covenant Gen. 15. to be the covenant of grace, I granted no fuch thing ; however, I thank you for telling me that, that Gen. 17.7. is more likely to be the covenant of grace than the other, for I deny the other to be the covenant of grace, for it contained temporal blefhngs only; Unto thy feed have I given this whole land. 12 more miltakes, I will shew you that covenant I de ny to be the covenant of Grace ; it's that which God made with Abraham and the natural feed, Gen. 15. 18. which was again renew'd Gen. 17.8. and fo to the 15. and that was dedicated with the blood of the facrifices, Exod. 24. 8. and that was again renewed, Deut.29. 10,11. in all which places the fubjects are the fame, the natural feed, confidered as fuch ; the inheritance the fame, the land of Ca. naan; this is that covenant that contain'd temporal bleffings only, that covenant that is diffinguished from the covenant of grace, Jer. 31. 32, 33. as ap. pears by comparing the 32 verfe with Deut. 29. 25. this is that covenant which is diffinct from the covenant of grace, Heb. 8. 6, 7. and fo to the end, and Heb. 9. 16, 17, 18.

Fourthly, You fay, that when God renewed this covenant with Abraham, he promised in more plain terms, that in his feeed all the nations of the earth should be bleffed, Gen. 22. 18.

Reply, I grant that the covenant of grace was here renewed, and that here is a promife of all fpiritual bleffings, Grace here, and Glory hereafter, which is and fhall come upon every individual perfon that is a fubject of that covenant : But this promife was made to the fpiritual feed, not to the natural : This promife was made in Chrift, and to those only that are Christs; If ye be Christs, then are ye Abraham's feed, and beirs according to the promife, Gal. 3. 29. This promife takes not in every individual perfon of all Nations, though its faid all the Nations of the Earth shall be bleffed, but fuch only as are related unto Christ, Gal. 3. 8, 9, 10. God preached the Gospel to Abraham, Saying, in thee Shall all the Nations of the earth be bleffed : So then, they that are of faith, ( that is of Christ, faith being taken obiectively )

If this promife had been made to the natural feed, confidered as fuch, not one of them should have gone without the benefit thereof. Hath God made this promise to the natural feed, and yet many of them go without the blefling thereof? How will it then harmonize with Rom. 4.16. It is of faith, that it might be by grace, to the end the promife might be made sure to all the seed, &cc.

emport Saubed Fifthly, You fay that this bleffing that is come on them in Christ, that is, on the Gentiles, is no other but the Gofpel Promifes and Priviledges. which were made to them in Chrift by covenant, Gal. 3. 14, 17.

Reply. This I readily grant you, but it did not come on all the Gentiles, but fuch only as were Chrifts, as I have fnewed you already; nor did it come on all the Jews, but on fuch of them as were Christs, and if so, then it was never put into that covenant in which the natural feed flood, confidered as fuch; for if it had, they would have enjoyed the benefit of it. And this anticipates your conclusion, which is this, that the covenant that God made with Abraham, which was figned with circumcifion, is the covenant of Grace; for had that been the covenant into which these bleffings were put, they foould have come on all the natural feed, who were the fubjects thereof.

Sixthly, You fay, it was no other than the covenant of grace into which the Jews entered, Deut. 29. 12, 13. That he may establish thee to be a people, and that he may be to thee a God. And these words are used by the Prophet to express the covenant of Grace as diffinct from the ceremonies of the Law? Fer. 7. 22, 23:

Reply. As to the 29th. of Deut. I have Spoken already, and if I must remind you of what I faid, then compare 25. with Jer. 31. 32, 33. and you may fee it's diffinct from the covenant of Grace ; it was the covenant God made with them, when he brought them up out of Egypt, and that was not the covenant of Grace : This Note of diffinction between the covenant Deut. 29. and the covenant of Grace, I gave you in my laft; but you have not made a word of Reply ; and whereas you fay that Jer. doth diffinguish the ceremonies of the Law from the covenant of Grace, there is not one word of the covenant of Grace in the place you have quoted; but I suppose you gather it from these words, Obey my voice, and I will be your God ; but this is no more than God promifed to the natural feed, by vertue of the peculiar covenant, in the fame terms . this proves not that covenant to be the covenant of Grace: God here makes himfelf over upon Conditional Terms, but the covenant of Grace is abfo. lute; obedience to God is the fruit of our relation by vertue of the covenant of Grace, not the Condition : This is no more than God promifed, Gen. 17. 8. Alfo, I will give unto thee, and to thy feed after thee, this whole land wherein thou art a stranger, and I will be their God.

This Covenant contained temporal bleffings only, and the most of them hung on conditions too, . Deut. 28. Now for God to be their God by vertue of this Covenant, was but to make good the promifesthereof; if they fhould break Covenant by their disobedience, as they might, Gen. 17. 14. and as they did, Fer. 31. 32. God was at liberty to give them a bill of divorce, as he threatned in the place you last quoted, Jer. 7. 28, 29. Thou shale fay unto them, this is a Mation that obeyeth not the voice of the Lord their God, nor receiverh correction; truth is perified and cut off from their mouth : Cut off thy hair, O Jerusalem, take up a lamentation, for the Lord hath rejected and forfaken the generation of his wrath. And is this the covenant of Grace, the fubjects of which may be forfaken? and are these the subjects of the covenant of grace, that the Lord calls the generation of his wrath, and whofe Carcaffes he threatens shall be meat for the fowls of the Air? Thefe are curfes, and not New-covenant bleffings, that were to fall upon them, Hof. 1. 7. Call his name Loammi, for ye are not my people, neither will I be your God : And yet he was once their God by vertue of this peculiar covenant; but when God makes himfelf over unto a people by vertue of the covenant of Grace, he is their God for ever, Jer. 32. 40.

Seventhly, You fay, if this be not the covenant of Grace, then the covenant of Grace was not eftablifhed under the Law.

Reply. It does not follow that the covenant of Grace was not established under the Law, if this be denied to be the covenant of Grace; the one may be denied, the other granted : What I have written already, fhews that I own the covenant of Grace to be from the beginning, to be established with Abraham and his spiritual feed, Gen. 17, 7. and to be confirmed, Gen. 22.18. In the next place you come to examine the differences that I laid down between this covenant and the covenant of Grace.

SECT. I.

THe first you fay is this, That the covenant that God made with the Jews, was a Covenant that might be broken, that it contained cur16 fes as well as bleffings, that might fall on the fubjects thereof without a fanctified ufe of them; but the covenant of Grace can't be broken, and that it contains only bleffings. This you fay is a ftrange property of the covenant of Grace, that it cannot be broken, and that there had need be more proof to it than my bare fay fo, to perfwade any reafonable man to believe it.

Reply. You had more than my bare fay fo to prove it, if you would but have caft your eye upon it; and I think more than you can answer, because you flipt it without a reply. I gave you for the proof of it, Jer. 32. 40. I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will never turn away from them to do them good, and I will put my fear into their bearts, that they shall not depart from me. If God will never turn away from the fubjects of this covenant to do them good, then he will always ftand by them to do them good, and to do them all the good that they need, or can expect from a God of Grace and Mercy; and if he will put his fear into their hearts, that they shall not depart from him, then let any rational man tell me how this covenant can be broken. But feeing there wants fo much proof to a truth fo plain and clear, I shall endeavour to put it beyond difpute.

First, It cannot be broken on Gods part, Heb. 6. 17, 18. God willing more abundantly to shew to the beirs of his promife the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by his Oath: That by two immutable things by which it was impossible for God to bye, they that had fied to lay hold on the Hope set before them might have strong confolation. The Word is unchangeable, the Oath is unchangeable, and it's impossible for God to 1ye, that hath promised, that in Abraham's seed all the Nations in the earth should be bleffed, Gal. 3. 17. And this I fay, that the Covenant that was before confirmed of God in Christ, the Law that was four hundred and thirty Years after could not difanul, that it should make the Promise of none effect. Pfalm 89. 28, 29, G.c. My Mercy will I keep for him for evermore, (that is, Christ) and my Covenant shall stand fast with him; if his Children break my Law, and walk not in my Statutes, I will visit their Iniquities with the Rod, and their Sin with Stripes ;. but my loving-kindness will I not take from them, nor suffer my faithfu!ness to fail : My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my Lips, If God will not take his Love from him, then not from them that are one with him : If his Covenant shall stand fast with him for evermore, then with them that are one with him by vertue of the fame Covenant. But you will fay, Will not God break his Govenant, when his Children break his Laws? I answer, No, he will correct them, but not difinherit them. The breach of Gods Laws was a breach of that Covenant wherein the natural Seed flood, confidered as fuch, but not the breach of the Covenant of Grace; wherein the Children of Christ stands, Heb. 9. 17. A Testament is of force when Men are dead, otherwise it's of no force at all while the Testator liveth : The Testator being dead, the Teftament can't be altered; not one Name of those that were written in the Lambs Book of Life can be blotted out, nor one Legacy altered. If it be but a mans Covenant, when it is confirmed, no man difanuleth, or addeth thereunto. This the Apostle bringeth to thew, how unalterable the Covenant of Grace is, being confirmed by the Death of the Teltator.

Secondly, It can't be broken by the Subjects thereof: Once in the Covenant of Grace, and for ever. B 3 Firft, Firft, All their Sins are pardoned, upon the fatisfaction made by Chrift their Surety, Col. 2. 13, 14. And you who were dead in your Sins, and the Uncircumcifion of your Flefh, hath be quickened together with Christ, having forgiven you all fins, blotting out the hand-writing of Ordinances that was against us; that was contrary to us, taking it out of the way, and nailing it unto the Crofs. This hand-writing was the Moral Law, which was written and engraven in Stone, which the Apostle calls The Ministration of Death, that was written and ingraven in Stone. 2 Cor. 3.7. and which he there telleth you is done away, (I do not fay that the Moral Law is done away in respect of the Precept thereof. that it fhould not be a rule of Life to Believers, for I acknowledge that luch are still under the ruling Power thereof, as well as others; this I put down to prevent miftakes) but in refpect of the Carle thereof : He hath redeemed us from the Curfe of the Law, being made a Curfe for us, Gal. 3. 13. That this was the Moral Law, appears, First, In that he speaks to the Gentiles that were not under the Ceremonial Law. Secondly, In that it was a Law that was against us, that it was contrary to us, it was that Law by which we were condemned, by which we were bound over to wrath; the Debt being paid by a Surety, Juffice it felf pleads the discharge of the Principle, gives up the Bond immediately, there is no more Charge, Action or Moleftation, of or against the Principle; infomuch that there is a challenge made, Rom. 8.33. Who fhall lay any thing to the charge of Gods Elict ? it's God that justifieth; who shall condemn ? it's Chrift that died, yea rather that is ri-Jen again. He dares their discharge from the time of Chrift's Oblation : Now the Debt paid was not not this or that particular Sin fatisfied for, but this and that, as Sins paft, prefent, and to come. First, It was the defign of Christ in dying to redeem from all Sin, Tit. 2. 14. Who gave himfelf. for us, that he might, &c. Either Christ hath done what he gave himfelf to do, or he hath not : If he hath, then are they redeemed from all Iniquity ; if he hath not, it must be for want of Merit in his Blood ; and that were blasphemy to affert.

Secondly, What Chrift gave himfelf to do, that he did, Heb. 10. 14. By one oblation he bath for ever perfected them that are fanctified : This Perfection confifts in the pardon of Sin; and the Word for ever fhews it to be all Sin, paft, prefent, and to come : Now where Remiffion of these is, there is no more facrifice for Sin. Either Sin is remitted upon the oblation of Chrift, or it is not; if it be not, it will never be remitted; for without fhedding of Blood there is no Remillion.

Thirdly, Those that are redeemed are eternally redeemed, never to come into Condemnation more, Heb. 9. 12. He entered once into the boly place, browing obtained for us eternal Redemption : And it is with respect to the Confummation of. the new Covenant by the Death of Chrift, that God is faid to be merciful to their unrighteoufnels, and to remember their Sins no more. Now then, if the Sins of those that have an interest in this Covenant/are all pardoned, how can the fubjects thereof break it? if this Covenant be broken, it must be by Sin, but pardoned Sin cannot break it.

Secondly, If the Sins of those that have an intereft in this Covenant may break it, who then fhall fhall remain interefted in it? In many things we offend all: I do not judge that you do diffinguish between Mortal and Venial Sins, or that there is any fuch distinction to be made; Sin as Sin de, ferves Death.

Thirdly, God hath promifed to put his fear into the Hearts of the Subjects of this Covenant, that they fhall not depart from, (that is) they fhall not totally and finally depart from him : So that now I hope that my affertion ftands good, that the Covenant of Grace can't be broken; and if fo, then its a good note to diffinguish it by; from the Covenant into which the natural Seed were taken, (confidered as fuch) which was a Covenant that might be broken, and that was broken.

Secondly, You fay, though God will not fail to afford us Grace, fufficiently to enable us to keep his Covenant, Jer. 32. 40. yet it is too poffible for ns, through our own default, to receive his Grace in vain.

Reply. If God will never turn away from us to do us good, but will put his fear into our Hearts, that we fhall not depart from him, then it is not possible for us to receive his Grace in vain; and if you intend for the proof of your Affertion, 2 Cor. 6. 1. that will be no evidence for you in this matter: It's not the infusion of Grace, but the Doctrine of Grace that is there intended, as appears by the Coherence, and that I grant may be received in vain; and is, when it is received into the Head, but not into the Heart; when it is received in the Notion, but not in the Life and Power thereof.

Thirdly, You fay, God doth not compel us to be good, nor to obey any of his Laws, without our own endeavour.

Reply. God doth not compel us against our Will, I grant; that is not the way that God taketh; but he doth by a Work of Regeneration alter and change our Will; and makes us of unwilling to be willing, Pfalm 110: 3. Secondly; The Heart must be changed by the infusion of new Principles, before we can heartily endeavour, or can pleafe. God in what we do, Rom. 8. 7. The carnal Mind is enmity against God, and is not subject unto the Law of God, neither indeed can be : Now this change of the Heatt is a New-Covenant Bleffing, which all the fubjects thereof shall in time enjoy, Ezek. 36. 26. A new Heart also will 1 give unto you, &c. This Promife is made to all the fpiritual Ifrael, and to them only, Heb. 8. 10, 11. This is the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, I will write my Law in their Hearts, &c. an infeparable Companion of which is the pardon of all their Sins, ver. 34.

Fourthly, You fay, we may through our own perverfe Wills refuse his Counsel, and abuse his Grace, Prov. 1. 24, 28, 29.

Reply. I grant where the Gofpel is afforded, Sinners as Sinners have a call to come to Jelus Chrift; and I do not fcruple to fay, it is a gracious call, which yet may be abused by the most of those that are within the found thereof : Many are called, but few are chosen. Yet there is not one of the fubjects of this Covenant that shall go without an Effectual Call, Rom. 8. 29. There is not one link of that golden Chain that shall ever fail, John 10. 16. And other Sheep I have, that are net of this fold, them also I must bring, and there shall be Fifthly, You fay, that there are too many that forfake their own Mercy, and transgress the Gofpel to their own Destruction.

Reply. A Gofpel Call is their own Mercy : Ifrael had a day ; If thou hadft known in this thy day; it was their own day; the great Gospel-command hath been, and is tranfgreffed, and men shall be damned for that Tranfgreffion. You bring a great many Scriptures here, to prove that the Gofpel Covenant may be broken, and that it threatens a curfe for the breach thereof; I fay, you bring a great many Scriptures, fuch as thefe, to prove this, 2. Theff. 1. 8. He fhall come in flaming Fire, rendering vengeance on them that know not God, nor obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, &c. But do you look on these to be the subjects of the Covenant of Grace ? fure I am, it is not your bare fay fo will clear it; there is only one Text that need to be confidered, and that is Heb. 10.28,29. And have troden under foot the Son of God, and have counted the Blood of the Covenant, wherewith they were fanctified, an unholy thing, and have done despite to the Spirit of Grace.

Reply. This can't be taken of real San Clification, but of Sanctification in appearance, unlefs we interfere with other Scriptures, Phil. 1. 6. He that bath begun a good work in you, will not ceafe to perfect the fame, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Chrift : Where Chrift begins a work of Sanctification, he will finish it; if he hath given the Soul living water, it shall be in him a Well of Water, springing up to Everlafting Life : And if fach as have made a Profession, and seemed to be fanctified, do totally and finally fall away, it may be faid of them, them, as the Apostle speaks, They are gone out from us, but they were not all of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us; but they went out from us, that it might be manifest that they were not all of us : But who were they then? I anfwer, the Children of Hagar, not of Sarah; the Sons of the Bond-woman, not of the Free.

You Query, Do not these Scriptures prove, that the Covenant of Grace may be broken, and that it threatens a curfe for the breach thereof?

Reply. They prove that the commands of the Gofpel may be tranfgreffed by wicked men, and that they shall be damned for that Transgression ; but they do not prove, that the Covenant may be broken by the fubjects thereof.

Seventhly, You Query, If the Covenant may not be broken, how can any Man be damned that profelles the Gofpel, though he walk contrary to that Profession, feeing he is condemned for nothing, but for breaking of the Gospel-Covenant ?

Reply. I would ask again, How those may be faid to break the Covenant, that never had an interest in it? and how it appears that fuch as are damned had ever an intereft in the Covenant of Grace?they were none of Chrifts Sheep; for if they had, they fhould have heard Chrift's Voice, and have followed him, and fhould have had Eternal Life, John 10. 27,28. My Sheep hear my Voice, and I give to them Etirnal Life, and they (hall never perifs, &c. And if they are none of Chrift's, then they are none of Abraham's Seed, and fo not heirs according to Promife.

Secondly, How doth it appear, that wicked men are condemned for breaking of this Covenant? Where does the Scripture fay, that their Condemnation is for the breach of the Covenant of Grace? That of the Hebrews will not reach it : Men 24

Men may trample under foot the Blood of the Covenant, by defpiling of Jefus Chrift, and by reje-Aing of him, that had never an interest in him, and may have the denomination of fanctified ones, that were never really fanctified. All the Churches of Ghrift are stiled Saints, professing themselves fuch, though there are Hypocrites among them: And if men do totally and finally fall from their Profession, its an evident demonstration that they were never really fanctified, that they were never regenerated, never born of God, nor had ever an interest in the Covenant of Grace.

First, That they were never born of God, I John 3. 9. He that is born of God doth not commit Sin, neither can he, for his Seed remaineth in him. He can't yield the full Confent of his Will, nor Sin with conftant allowance ; It's the thing that I would not, that I do; faith the Apoftle, Rom. 7. If men Sin willingly after they have received the Knowledge of the Truth, as thefe do, Heb. 10. its a fure fign that they were never born of God, and if they were never born of God, they were ne. ver really fanctified.

Secondly, It's a fure fign that they had never an interest in the Covenant of Grace : Such as have an intereft in this Covenant, are fecured by the Promifes thereof from total and final Apoftacy, Jer. 32. 40. John 10. 27, 28, 29. Mat. 16. 18. Upon this Rock will I build my Church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it : Its the House that's built upon the Sand that falls, not the House that's built upon the Rock; every true Believer is built upon this Rock.

YOu fay, the fecond difference that I make between these two Covenants is this, that into which the Fews entred with their Seed was conditional, but the Covenant of Grace is abfolute. Here you grant the former, and deny the latter. You fay the Covenant of Grace is conditional:

Reply. These Terms I suppose are inconfistent; if it be the Covenant of Grace, then its not conditional; if it be conditional, then its not the Covenant of Grace, Rom. 11.6. If it be of Grace, then it's no more of Works, otherwise Grace is no more Grace; and if it be of Works, then it's no more of Grace, otherwife Works are no more Works : So that unlefs the Nature of these two are changed, Grace and Works, as Conditions, will not fland together.

Secondly, You fay, a Covenant neceffarily implics a mutual Obligation; and as God in the Covenant promifeth bleffings on his part, fo he requires Conditions on our part, in order to obtain those bleffings.

Reply. First, I deny that a mutual Obligation is effential to a Covenant, as fuch, though it may be to fome Covenants; a Covenant may be made without it, Gen. 9. God made a Covenant with all Flesh, as well irrational as rational, the Token of which Covenant you have feen. This Covenant is abfolute, there could be no Condition required of, nor performed by irrational Greatures, in order to obtain the Bleffings; and should rational Creatures be as wicked, yea, more wicked then they were before the Flood, yet has the Lord

Lord bound himself by this Covenant, that he will drown the World no more. Again, we have the Lords Covenant with the Day, and with the Night, Jer. 33. 20. That they should continue for ever in their feason; but where the mutual ob. ligation lies, I do not know.

Secondly, A Covenant may be made between two, for, and in behalf of others, wherein they mutually engage to each other; as that between Laban and Jacob, in behalf of Laban's Daughters, Gen. 31. 5. which Covenant was abfolute with re. fpect to the Subjects thereof, that Jacob should not abuse them, nor take other Wives to them. Such is the Covenant of Grace, it was tranfacted between the Father and the Son, for, and in behalf of the Elect, Ifa. 49. from 1, to 11. wherein there is a mutual engagement between the Father and the Son, both for Redemption, Vocation, and Glorification, Tit. 1. 2. In hopes of Eternal Life, which God that cannot lye promifed before the World was: Whom could this Promife be made to but Chrift, and for whom could it be made but the Elect? How could Paul have bottomed his Hopes on the Promife, if he had not had an Interest in it? 2 Tim. 1.9. Who bath faved us, and called us, not according to our Works, but according to his own purpose and Grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the World was : This Grace of God, which was the original caufe of all good, was made over to a peculiar People, before the Creation of the World, which Gift was free and abfolute; it was given to all those, and only those, who in time are faved and called.

Thirdly, You fay, that God requireth Conditions to be performed by us, in order to obtain his Bleffings.

Reply. That there are duties required of the Subjects of this Covenant, I grant; that these are Conditions, I deny; for whatever God requires of the Subjects of this Covenant, he hath promifed to give them a Heart to perform, and that muft be made good on Gods part, antecedent to any thing done by them, that is any way pleafing unto God : Without Faith it's impossible to please God; and Faith they have not till God gives them a new Heart; So then they that are in the Elesh cannot please God, Rom. 8. 8. I fay, what God requires of them, he hath promifed to give them an Heart to do, Ezek. 26. 26, 27.

Secondly, If God requires Conditions of us, then these Conditions must be performed, antecedent to the receiving of the Bleffings; and who then shall ever be the better for them, who hath given to God firft?

Thirdly, A new Heart is one of God's bleffings, Ezek: 36. 26. A Will to do what God requires is one of Gods Bleffings, Pfalm 110. 3. and what can be performed acceptable unto God, before these Bleffings are given out ?

Fourthly, When God gives out these Bleffings, he doth not beflow them on us for what we have done, Tit. 3. 5. nor yet according to what we have done, 2 Tim. 1.9.

Fourthly, You fay, the Covenant on Gods part hath this Seal; the Lord knoweth who are his, he will own and reward them that are faithful to him.

Reply. That God will own and reward them that are faithful, I grant to be a great Truth, but. I can't think it's the genuine Senfe of this Text ; the Text tells you, The Foundation of God standeth fure, having this Seal, the Lord knoweth who Are are his: This I look upon to be his decree of Election, which was his Foundation-Act of Grace, that ftandeth fure, and the Seal is his Knowledge of them; he knoweth whom he hath chosen, and he will own them, ftand by them, and preferve them in an apostatizing-time. And though Hymeneus and Philetus, who once feemed as Stars of the greatest magnitude, had by their Apostacy discovered themfelves to be but Comets, yet fuch as God had chosen should be preferved.

Fifthly, You fay, that we on our part fet to our Seal, and oblige our felves to depart from Iniquity.

Reply. If you caft. your Eye again on the Text, you may fee that it's the Lord that obligeth us to depart from Iniquity; its not historical, but preceptive; And let every one that nameth the Name of Chrift, depart from Iniquity.

Sixthly, You fay, that place Jer. 31. 33. exprefly declares the Condition of the new Covenant, both on Gods part and ours too, that he will be our God, and we fhall be his People.

Reply. I think a man must be very quick-fighted, that can efpy a Condition in a Text that is wholly promiffory; he must needs be a very great Artift, that can turn a Priviledge into a Condition; I will be their God, and they shall be my People; its a choice Promife, and holds out the Priviledge of the Subpromife, and holds out the Priviledge of the Subjects thereof; you may as well make the next words a Condition as thefe; They shall all know me, from the greatest to the least; and if you do, by the People of God understand fuch as are his by Vocation, then their call is here promifed, they shall be my People; but how shall this be effected? the Text tells you; I will write my Law in their Hearts, and put it in their inward parts: This is that that deth Seventhly, You fay, that to approve our felves to be the people of God, we mult not only believe his Promises, but obey his Will, and walk in his ways.

Reply. Must all these be done antecedent to our relation, and as conditions of our relation to God ? that all these are matter of duty, and that they are the means by which we approve our felvesto be the people of God, both to our felves and others too, I grant, but that they are conditions entitling us to God, as our God, I deny. You fay unlefs we be obedient unto God, and behave our felves as his people, he will not be our God to blefs us, and to crown us with Happinefs.

33. est Reply. Firft, God must blefs us with a principle of Obedience, before we can yield an act of Obedience; that is, an act of fincere Obedience; and if it be not fincere, it's neither acceptable unto God, nor fpiritually profitable unto our felves. The carnal mind is enmity against God, and is not subject unto the Law of God, neither indeed can be : So that an act of Obedience is not antecedent to the bleffing; and therefore not a condition thereof; and tho' obedience be antecedent to happinefs, (by which I suppose you intend a Crown of Glory ) yet it is not the condition of that happinels. Glory may be confidered as an end following obedience, preparing, fitting for and disposing to it, but not as an end depending on obedience, as a means procuting. Eighthlya 30 Eighthly, You fay the great bleffings of the Go. fpel are promifed on condition of Faith, and fincere Obedience.

Reply. Here I would query, Whether Faith and fincere Obedience be not great Gospel Bleffings themfelves, or whether they will be found to grow in Natures Garden ? mult not the heart first be changed, before a man can believe, or yield fincere obedience? the effence of Faith lyeth in the act of the Understanding, and of the Will, neither of which can be put forth till the heart be renewed, the understanding can't behold Jefus Christ ; The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit, nor can be know them, for they are spiritually discerned : And fuch a one wants a spiritual eye, I John 5. 1. He that believeth that Jefus is the Chrift, is born of God; to know God to be the only true God, and Jefus Christ whom he bath fent, is the gift of Jefus Christ, John 17. 2,3. and this gift is beltowed on them only that are given unto Jefus Chrift : And as for the act of the Will, that alfo is a New-covenant blef. fing, Pfal. 110. 3. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. And what is fincere Obedience but a New-Covenant-bleffing alfo, a fruit of the free. grace of God ? Phil. 2. 13. It's God that worketh in you, both to will and to do of his own good pleasure : I doubt not but faith and fincere obedience may be called great bleffings of the Golpel as well as others, and what I pray are the conditions on which thefe are beftowed ?

Ninthly, You bring three places to prove this, that Faith and Obedience are the conditions on which the great bleffings of the Gofpel are given out, Acts 10. 43. He that beleives h fhall receive remiffion of fins.

Reply. It's one thing for fins to be remitted, and another another thing for a perfon to receive remission. Sin was remitted from the time of Chrift's oblation. (as I shewed you in the preceeding head) remission of fin lyes in our reconciliation, 2 Cor. 5. God was in Chrift reconciling the world to himfelf not imputing unto them their tre [paffes ; then was the Attonement made, but we receive the Attonement when we believe, Rom. 5. 11. By whom also we have now received the Attonement : Our receiving remiffion is not the condition of our pardon, that was procured by Chrift long before; that of Prov. 28. 18. fhews us the way in which God will be found; He that confeffeth bis fin, and forfaketh it, shall find mercy. God doth not fet his grace and mercy to fale, he pardoneth freely; repentance is not the condition of pardon, but the way to attain the fence thereof. The other Scripture, 1 John 2.7. is plainly an evidence, not a condition ; He that doth righteoufnefs is righteous, as be is righteous.

Tentbly, You fay, without obedience we shall never enter into happines; Without bolines none shall fee the Lord.

Reply. This is readily granted, yet is not the holinefs and obedience of fanctified ones the condition of their interest in the covenant, but the fruit thereof.

Eleventhly, You fay, that God will not pardon lins while we continue impenitent; For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all unrighteon s of men, Rom. 1. 18.

Reply. That the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven, is granted, and the greatest wrath is revealed against the fins of those that are the subjects of this covenant, for whom Jefus Chrift ftood a furety : God laid all their fins upon Christ, Ifa. 53: 6. and poured out all that wrath upon Ghrift that was due to them, verfe 4. Surely be bath born our griefs, he hath carried our forrows, that which we Thould have born and carried ; he was wounded for our transgreffions, and by his stripes are we healed; all this wrath was born upon the account of the fubjects of this covenant, ver/e 8. for the transgreffions of my people was he fricken. Jefus Chrift in bearing this wrath for us hath born it from us, I Thef. I. 10. Even Jefus who hath delivered us from the wrath to come : When Chrift was made a curfe for us, then did he redeem us from the curfe, in which redemption there is remiffion ; then did he confummate that New-Covenant, Heb. 8. at which time God pardoned all the fins of the fubjects thereof; when the Teftator was dead, the Teftament was of force, and from that time there is a challenge made, Who (hall lay any thing to the charge of Gods' Elect ? it's God that justifies, &c. Rom. 8.33.

Twelfthly, You fay, if this Doctrine were generally embraced, and put in practice, it would defroy the Christian Religion.

Reply. I take this to be a hafty conclusion, which the Premifes will not afford; I know no one duty deftroyed by it, neither Faith nor Repentance, nor any act of Obedience, either to moral or Evangelical Precepts; there is enough for us to do, though not as conditions; though we are not bound to work for life, yet is there work enough to be done from life, and our capacity to obey where God commands is a fruit of our intereft; a new heart and a new fpirit, Ezek, 36. is a fruit of our intereft; the fpirit enabling us to pray is a fruit of our relation to God, Gal. 4. 5. Because ye are fons, God hath fent forth the spirit of his Son into your bearts, crying Abba, Father. The Doctrine of the freenefs and abfolutencis of this Covenant never opened a Ou fay, the the third difference that I make be-I tween these two Covenant is this, that the one contains temporal bleffings, the other fpiritual; your Anfwer to this is, that though this Covenant that the Jews were under with their feed, contained a great many temporal bleffings, yet there were fome spiritual bleffings, for God promiled to circumcife their hearts, and the hearts of their children, Deut. 30.6. Eph. 11. 19, 20. God promifeth to give them One beart, and to take away the stony heart out of their flesh, and to give them an heart of flesh, that they should walk in his statutes, and that he would be their God, and they should be his people.

Reply. I suppose my Argument yet ftands good, and that the fame Anfwer may ferve which I have given already; if this had been a branch of that covenant in which the natural feed flood, confidered as fuch, Deut. 29. then should they all have enjoyed the benefit thereof. God makes no promile, but he performs it too.

Secondly, You fay that many of them refused to perform the conditions on which these promises were made, and therefore they went without the benefit thereof.

conditions were, nor do I know what conditions may be performed antecedent to a new heart : If you fay it was fincere obedience, which is the likelieft to be pitched upon, there lies the Propofal, Deut. 30. 2. If thous halt return, and obey the voice of the Lord, according to all that I command thee, those and thy children, with all thy heart and with all thy Toul . Is this the condition? if it be, then were they under an impoffibility to perform it; this can't be done without heart-circumcifion, antecedent thereunto: The carnal mind is enmity against God, and is not subject unto the law of God, neither indeed can be. Rom. 8.7. Men can't obey the law of God till God write his law in their hearts, they can't obferve his judgments till he puts his fpirit within them, fo that heart-circumcifion that follows fincere obedience can't be understood of the firstwork of fanctification, but of a farther carrying on of the work thereof.

Secondly, If you read the Book of the covenant, Exod. 21, 22, 23. Chapters. You will find no fuch promise there; that these Chapters contained the book of the Covenant, appears, Exod. 24.8. if you read the 28th. of Deut. where you have a lift of all the bleffings of this covenant, you will find no fuch promife there, and yet Mofes tells them Chap. 20. I. These are the Words of the covenant that the Lord commanded him to make with them; and in the 25 verfe. you may fee that this was the Covenant the Lord made with them when they came out of Egypt; by which note its diffingifhed from the covenant into which heart-circumcifion was put. fer. 31, 32, 33. and as for that promife that God made of a heart to walk in his ftatutes, Ezek. 11. 19, 20, it was made to a peculiar people that God had among the fews, or to the fpiritual feed :

SECT. IV.

VOu fay, the fourth Difference that I make be-I tween these two covenants, is in respect of the fubjects : The fubjects of the one being the natural feed of Abraham, confidered as fuch, the fubjects of the other being the fpiritual feed, true Members of Chrift, really regenerate and holy: But this exposition of the Members of Christ is your own, and not mine : To this you fay, that the difference between the Covenant of Grace under the Law, and under the Gospel, is not fo great as to make them different Covenants.

Reply. I know no difference in the Covenant of Grace then and now, nor did I endeavour to make any, I only diftinguish the Covenant of Grace from that Covenant that the natural feed were in, confidered as fuch.

Secondly, You fay, that all that were admitted into the Church of the Jews, and professed that religion, were in the covenant of Grace; and all that are admitted into the Church of Chrift, and profels that religion that he hath taught, are in the covenant of Grace, under the Evangelical Adminiftration ; and much to this purpose you have brought, without one Text of Scripture to prove it, therefore I shall let it pass till I come to your Scriptures.

Thirdly, You fay, there are many promifes of Pardon and Salvation, which are special parts of the Gospel-Covenant made to the wicked, on condition of repentance, as Ifa. 55. 7. Ezek. 15. 29.

Reply. First, The offer of the promife is to all where the Gofpel comes, but its one thing to have the offer, and another thing to have an interest in the promife.

Secondly, The Promifes, though offered unto all, yet are made to none but the fpiritual feed; to Abrabam and his feed were the promifes made; he faith not to feeds, as of many, but unto thy feed, as of one, which is Chrift, Gal. 3. 16.

Fourthly, You fay, that those of the natural feed that were not the Children of God, Rom. 9. were fuch as rejected Christ, and sought Justification by the works of the Law.

Reply. I grant they rejected Chrift, but this Anfwer is befides the Queftion; the Queftion is, Whether they had an intereft in the promife? they were the Children of Abraham, but not the Children of the Promife, which were accounted for the Seed.

Secondly, How came they to reject Chrift? Was it not because they had no Interest in the Promise, it not because they had no Interest in the Promise, no Relation unto Jesus Christ? I suppose Christ bottoms it there, John 10. 26. Ye believe not, because ye are not my Sheep, as I said unto you. The covenant of Grace was made with Israel, Jer. Covenant of Grace was made with Israel, Jer. 31. 33. Eut all are not Israel that are of Israel; Not as though the Word of God has taken none effect: Those to whom God hath promised Grace, to them he gives it; but that was to Israel, not all of Israel. I mentioned Jacob and Essau too, the one loved, and the other hated; and put the Question, Whether a Person hated of God, might be considered a subject of the Covenant of Grace? I likewise mentioned Gal. 3. 16, 29. If ve be Chrifts, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and Heirs according to Promise : I shewed you, that Abraham had but two Seeds, a natural and a fpiritual Seed ; that the Gentiles are not his natural Seed, nor can they be known to be his fpiritual Seed, till they walk in the fteps of Abraham's Faith; but there is no reply to all this.

First, You Query, if formal Professions have no Interest in the Covenant of Grace, how then can they be faid to transgress it ?

Reply. I know not where it's fo faid, though I deny not but Gospel-laws are broken by them.

Secondly, You Query, how they could have any hope of Mercy and Salvation, in cafe they repent, if they have no Interest in the Covenant?

Reply. I never denied, that those have an Intereft in the Covenant, that do in time come truly to repent; that which I deny, is, that those which live and die impenitently had ever an Interest in the Covenant of Grace.

Thirdly, You Query, if none have an Intereft in the Covenant but the fpiritual Seed of Abraham, fuch as are truly regenerated, then how could any upon fure grounds be admitted into the Church by Baptifm ?

Reply. I know none but fuch as are for Infant-Baptifm, that do make Interest in the Covenant the ground thereof, nor any ground they have fo to do as yet, though you have written fo many Lines about it. We fay, a true Faith gives the Subject a right to challenge it, a Profession of that Faith gives a call to the Administrator to adminifler it, and his Authority fo to do is from the Commission, Mat. 28.

Secondly, I deny that ever I faid, that none but thole 28

those that are truly regenerate are the subjects of the Covenant, (that is, those to whom the Promifes are made) and now that I may prevent this miltake for the future, I shall shew you, who they are that I do own to be the Subjects of this Covenant.

The Subjects of the Covenant of Grace are the Elect of God, that are given unto Jefus Chrift; and here I shall premise two things : First, That there are an Elect People, a Particular People, that God hath chosen in Christ out of the Mais of Mankind, before the Foundation of the World, unto Salvation as the end, and to Sanctification as the means.

First, They are chosen to Salvation as the end, 2 Theff. 2. 13. God hath chofen you to Salvation from the beginning : Eph. 1.4. According as he hath chofen us in him, before the Foundation of the World, that we (hould be boly, and without blame before him in Love. There are four things which lie in the very furface of the Text: First, This choice is of particular Perfons, Paul and the Ephefians. Secondly, They were chosen in Christ. Thirdly, This choice was before the Foundation of the World. Fourthly, It was that they should be Holy, not upon a forefight that they would be Holy. Holinefs is an effect of Election, not the caufe.

Secondly, These Elect were given unto Chrift, John 17. Thine they were, and thou gaveft them unto me : This Gift of the Father to the Son was antecedent to the Knowledge of God, and Jefus Chrift given to them by the Son, John 17. 2, 3. That I may give Eternal Life to as many as thou haft given unto me : Some men are the Sheep of Chrift, fome men are not the Sheep of Chrift, when both are Unbelievers, John 10. 16. compared with the 26. verfe.

verfe. I fhall now prove, that thefe are the fub-As jects of this Covenant.

Pro First, It appears, in that the Bleffings of this the Govenant belong to them, Eph. I. 3. Who hath the bleffed us with all spiritual Bleffings in Christ, accordover ing as he hath chosen us in him : They have a Title unto all, and in time shall enjoy all, when all others et will fall fhort of it, Rom. 11. 5. What then Ifrael hill hath not obtained, that which it fought after, but the Election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

Secondly, It was for their fakes that Chrift had his Name Jefus given to him: Thou Shalt call his of Name Jesus, for he Chall fave his People from their Sins, Mat. 1. 21. his People before they were a faved People.

Thirdly, It was upon their account that Chrift for underwent all his Sufferings, John 10. 15. I lay chole down my Life for the Sheep: Ifa. 53. 8. For the In Transgressions of my People was he stricken : He loved In the Church, and gave himfelf for them: Eph. 5. 25. fat For their fakes he fanstified himfelf : John 17. 19. He cula prayed for them, he prayed not for the World, but for The them that were given him of the Father ; and if he of prayed not for the World, I conclude he died not for the World.

Fourthly, It appears, in that those only are the spiritual Seed of Abraham to whom the Promiles were mide, Gal. 3. 29. If ye be Chrift's, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and Heirs according to the Promife. Thefe, and thefe only are the Perfons that in time come to believe, John 6. 37. All that the Father giverb me shall come unto me : John 10. 16. Other Sheep I have that are not of this Fold, them also I must bring; shew me a true Believer, and I will fnew you an Elect Perfon: So then, I conclude with you, that the regenerate are not the only fubfubjects of the Covenant of Grace. There were more Marks of difference that I gave you of these two Covenants, among which this was one, the Covenant of Grace was a better Covenant, efta. blifhed on better Promifes. There can't be a de. gree of comparison where there is but one. I fhewed in what respects the Promises were better, but you were pleafed to pafs all without a reply, and to conclude from what was written, that there was no fuch difference between the Cove. nant of Grace and that Covenant that the natu. ral Seed were in, but that in fubstance it was the fame, though the Premifes were far enough from being cleared.

40

SECT. V.

YOU come now to challenge a repeal of Chil-drens Church-membership, though you had it before; I told you it was then repealed, when the Govenant by which they were conflituted a Church was broken, Zach. 11. 10. I shewed you, there was a new Commission given out after Christ was rifen, according to which the Apoftles were to act, Mat. 28. 19, 20.

Your Anfwer to this, is, that the Ceremonial Law is fometimes called the first and old Covenant, Heb. 8.7, 13. the Jewish shadows vanished, their carnal Ordinances and Sacrifices ceas'd.

Reply. The Apostle here speaks of the Covenant it felf, and not of the Ceremonial Law, as difting from the Covenant : Though I deny not, but when the Covenant was abolished, the Ordinances were abolifhed too, which Ordinances were but the adjuncts of the first Covenant, diftindt from the Effence, Heb. 9. 1.
